

Seminar Proceedings No. 29

CULTURE IN AFRICA

AN APPEAL FOR PLURALISM

Edited by
Raoul Granqvist

Nordiska Afrikainstitutet, Uppsala, 1993
(The Scandinavian Institute of African Studies)

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction: African Culture—an Estimate Raoul Granqvist | 5 |
| Christian Poetry and Music Drama: Black Cultural Expression in Zimbabwe Olof Axelsson | 15 |
| The “Electronic Church” in a Zimbabwean Communication Environment Hilde Arntsen and Knut Lundby | 45 |
| Zimbabwe: One State, One Faith, One Lord Chenjerai Hove | 69 |
| Rich and Poor Languages in Botswana Lars-Gunnar Andersson and Tore Janson | 73 |
| Living in the Neighbourhood of One’s Dreams: The Role of Popular Writing in the Creation of the Ordinary Bodil Folke Frederiksen | 87 |
| Oppression and Liberation of Kenyan Women: On Orature and Modern Women’s Literature Ingrid Björkman | 109 |
| In Search of Achebe’s Dignity; or, The Cauliflower Episode Adewale Maja-Pearce | 123 |
| The Islamic Architecture and Art in Sub-Saharan Africa: A Problem of Identity Karin Ådahl | 131 |
| The Actor, the Art of Acting and Liminality Kacke Götrick | 145 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| Historical Roots and Rural African Culture as Part of Bessie Head's Frame of Reference Gillian Stead Eilersen | 173 |
| Thomas Mofolo and Nelson Mandela on King Shaka and Dingane Carl F. Hallencreutz | 185 |
| Nadine Gordimer and "The South African Dilemma": The Case of Liz van Den Sandt in The Late Bourgeois World Rose Petterson | 195 |
| Contributors | 203 |