

The Military and Politics in Africa

From Engagement to Democratic and Constitutional Control

Edited by

GEORGE KLAY KIEH, JR.

Department of Political Science, Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, USA

PITA OGABA AGBESE

*Department of Political Science,
University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, Iowa, USA*

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Tables	vii
List of Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1 Introduction: The Military Albatross and Politics in Africa George Klay Kieh, Jr. and Pita Ogaba Agbese	1
2 Military Coups in Africa: A Framework for Research Ebere Onwudiwe	17
3 Military Engagement in Politics in Africa George Klay Kieh, Jr.	37
4 Soldiers as Rulers: Military Performance Pita Ogaba Agbese	57
5 Military Withdrawal from Politics in Africa Revisited Robin Luckham	91
6 Military Re-engagement in Politics George Klay Kieh, Jr.	109

vi	The Military and Politics in Africa
7	Military Defense Pacts in Africa Nowamagbe A. Omoigui	131
8	Democratic and Constitutional Control of the Military in Africa Pita Ogaba Agbese	183
	Index	213