

Surviving Globalism

The Social and Environmental Challenges

Edited by

Ted Schrecker

Contents

Notes on the Contributors	vii
Introduction: Sustainability, Globalization and Moral Imagination Ted Schrecker	1
Part I
1 Globalization as the Triumph of Capitalism: Private Property, Economic Justice and the New World Order Gary Teeple	15
2 Alienation and Globalization Donald G. Janelle	38
3 Beyond Iceberg Economics: Feminist and Ecological Approaches to Restructuring Melody Hessing	51
Part II
4 Reconciling Ecological, Economic and Social Imperatives: A New Conceptual Framework John Robinson and Jon Tinker	71
5 Global Economy and Civil Society Myron J. Frankman	95
6 Environmental Justice, Power and International Relations Peter Penz	108
7 Threats to the Environment in an Era of Globalization: An End to State Sovereignty? Jennifer Clapp	123
8 Healing the Sky to Survive Globalization: A Gender Analogy Susan Tanner	141

9	Free Trade versus the Environment in NAFTA David J. Blair	158
Part III
10	The Global Market Ideology: Anatomy of a Value System John McMurtry	177
11	Globalization and Its Discontents: Ecofeminism and the Dilemma of 'Universal' Politics Catriona Sandilands	199
12	Biotechnology and Patent Rights: Seeking the Common Good? Odelia Funke	214
13	A Dose of Realism? The Social Grammar of Globalism Philip Corrigan	239
	Index	253