

APARTHEID NO MORE

Case Studies of Southern African Universities in the Process of Transformation

Edited by
REITUMETSE OBAKENG MABOKELA
and KIMBERLY LENEASE KING

Foreword by Robert F. Arnove

Bergin & Garvey
Westport, Connecticut • London

Contents

Foreword	vii
Robert F. Arnove
Introduction	xi
Reitumetse Obakeng Mabokela and Kimberly Lenease King
1 Transformation through Negotiation: The University of Port Elizabeth's Experiences, Challenges, and Progress	1
Ann E. Austin
2 Crossing the Divide: Black Academics at the Rand Afrikaans University	37
Doria Daniels
3 Selective Inclusion: Transformation and Language Policy at the University of Stellenbosch	59
Reitumetse Obakeng Mabokela
4 Stumbling toward Racial Inclusion: The Story of Transformation at the University of Witwatersrand	73
Kimberly Lenease King
5 "Oh Sorry, I'm a Racist": Black Student Experiences at the University of Witwatersrand	91
Rochelle L. Woods
6 Transformation and Pedagogy: Expressions from Vista and the University of Zululand	111
Nicole Norfles

7	Higher Education Transformation in Namibia: Road to Reform and Reconciliation or Rock of Sisyphus? Rodney K. Hopson	121
8	Historically Disadvantaged Technikons in an Era of Transformation: Answering the Call, Confronting the Challenges Sonjai Amar Reynolds	139
	Conclusion: Implications for Policy and Practice Kimberly Lenease King	157
	Index	167
	About the Editors and Contributors	171