

Seminar Proceedings No. 24

RELIGION AND POLITICS IN SOUTHERN AFRICA

Edited by
Carl Fredrik Hallencreutz and Mai Palmberg

The Scandinavian Institute of African Studies, Uppsala 1991

Contents

PREFACE	7
INTRODUCTION Carl F. Hallencreutz	9
THE SOUTHERN AFRICAN SCENARIOS	13
The Call of the ANC Billy Modise	15
In Commemoration of Soweto 1976 Lisbet Palme	23
“In Humble Submission to Almighty God”—Church, State and Conflict in South Africa Sheena Duncan	27
Has Apartheid Gone? Axel Ivar Berglund	41
Namibia—A Sign of Hope? José Chipenda	48
The Regional Prospects Tor Sellström	57
RELIGION, APARTHEID AND AFTER	65
Towards Post-Apartheid South Africa Desmond Tutu	67
The Role of Islam in Southern Africa Ephraim Mandivenga	74
African Independent Churches and their Political Roles Bengt Sundkler	85

Healing and Political Acquiescence in African Independent Churches Matthew Schoffeleers	89
A New Religious Political Right Ove Gustafsson	109
The Theological Debate on Liberation Per Frostin	123
LESSONS FROM ZIMBABWE	141
Insights from the Second Chimurenga Patrick Mutume	143
Catholic Youth Mobilization in Zimbabwe Paul Gundani	150
Church and State in Zimbabwe and South Africa Carl F. Hallencreutz	159
The Role of the Church in the Development Market —The Case of Zimbabwe Agnes Chepkwony Ongaro	169
CONTEXTUALIZING HISTORY	183
Learning from History: Religion, Politics, and the Problem of Contextualization—The Case of J. W. Colenso Jeff Guy	185
Catholics and Protestants in a Clash of Interests in Southern Mozambique Alf Helgesson	194
CONCLUDING REMARKS José Chipenda Sigbert Axelson and Carl F. Hallencreutz	207
CONTRIBUTORS	217
SEMINAR PROCEEDINGS	218