
Direct Foreign Investment in Yugoslavia

A Microeconomic Model

T. Misha Sarković

PRAEGER

New York
Westport, Connecticut
London

Stadt- u. Univ.-Bibl.
Frankfurt/Main

Contents

Tables	vii
Foreword	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	xv
1. Yugoslav Self-Management Economy and Its Performance	1
The Evolution of the Yugoslav Economic System	4
The Performance of the Yugoslav Economy	10
Conclusion	20
2. Yugoslav Workers' Self-Management Enterprise	22
Structure of Yugoslav Enterprise	23
The Economics of Labor-Managed Enterprise	28
3. Theory of the Multinational Corporation	38
Definitions and Characteristics of MNCs	39
Political and Economic Environments of MNCs	43
Economics of Multinational Corporations	46
Economic Analysis of MNCs	50
Entry and Competition	55
4. Yugoslav Joint-Venture Agreements and East-West Industrial Cooperation	58
Dimensions of Joint-Venture Agreements	60
Defining Joint-Venture Agreements in Yugoslavia	65
Locality of Joint-Venture Agreements	68
Comparison of Joint Ventures among Different Socialist Economies	71
5. Objectives and Benefits of Yugoslav Joint-Venture Agreements	78
Objectives and Benefits of DFI	79
MNCs' Objectives in Joint-Venture Agreements	91
Yugoslav Firms' Objectives in Joint-Venture Agreements	100

vi / Contents

6. A Microeconomic Model of Yugoslav Joint Ventures	105
Microeconomic Model of Yugoslav Joint Ventures	111
Bargaining Power Model of Yugoslav Joint Ventures	115
Realistic Model of Yugoslav Joint Ventures	118
7. Legal Regulations and Experience of Yugoslav Joint-Venture Agreements	125
Evolution of Legal Requirements	126
The Joint-Venture Contract	140
The Nature and Pattern of Joint-Venture Agreements	141
8. Conclusions	154
Appendix A	161
Appendix B	183
Bibliography	189
Index	205