

AFRICAN INDEPENDENCE

The First Twenty-Five Years

EDITED BY

Gwendolen M. Carter and Patrick O'Meara

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Bloomington

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction Gwendolen M. Carter and Patrick O'Meara	xi
1. Richard L. Sklar The Colonial Imprint on African Political Thought	1
2. Donald F. McHenry The United Nations: Its Role in Decolonization	31
3. Robert H. Jackson and Carl G. Rosberg The Marginality of African States	45
4. Donald Rothchild State-Ethnic Relations in Middle Africa	71
5. Kenneth W. Grundy The Impact of Region on Contemporary African Politics	97
6. J. Gus Liebenow The Military Factor in African Politics: A Twenty-Five-Year Perspective	126
7. Michael F. Lofchie Africa's Agrarian Malaise	160
8. Goran Hyden Urban Growth and Rural Development	188
9. Crawford Young African Relations with the Major Powers	218
10. S. K. B. Asante International Assistance and International Capitalism: Supportive or Counterproductive?	249
11. Ali A. Mazrui Africa between Ideology and Technology: Two Frustrated Forces of Change	275

12.	John S. Saul
	Ideology in Africa:
	Decomposition and Recomposition	300
13.	Immanuel Wallerstein
	Africa and the World System:
	How Much Change since Independence?	330
14.	Hans Panofsky
	Bibliographic Essay:
	A Twenty-Five-Year Perspective	339
	Contributors	355
	Index	357