
Central America

The Future of Economic Integration

edited by
George Irvin and Stuart Holland

Westview Press
Boulder, San Francisco, & London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 Central American Integration: A Suitable Case for Treatment, George Irvin and Stuart Holland	1
2 A Macroeconomic Overview of the Central American Economies, John Weeks	23
3 Industrial Development in Central America, 1960–1980: Issues of Debate, Alfredo Guerra-Borges	45
4 Can Regional Import Substitution and Export-Led Growth Be Combined? Victor Bulmer-Thomas	67
5 Central American Economic Integration: Renewed Prospects in the Midst of Crisis, Juan Alberto Fuentes	89
6 Central America's External Debt: Past Growth and Projected Burden, Rómulo Caballeros	111
7 The Regional Monetary System and Economic Recovery, E.V.K. FitzGerald and Edwin Croes	139
8 The Reconstruction of the CACM and European Cooperation, Luis René Cáceres and George Irvin	163
References	189
About the Series	197
Index	199