

Clothing-industry
Adjustment in Developed Countries

BY

José de la Torre

*Professor of International Business
Institut Européen d'Administration des Affaires
Fontainebleau, France*

St. Martin's Press      New York

Contents

LIST OF TABLES	viii
LIST OF FIGURES	xii
BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE	xiii
PREFACE	xiv
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	xxi
1 EVOLUTIONARY STRUGGLE IN WORLD INDUSTRY	1
Survival Strategies for the Private Firm	2
State Intervention: Resisting Decline or Assisting Growth?	4
Resisting Adjustment: Pressures for Protection	6
North-South Interdependence	17
Lessons from the Clothing Industry	19
2 CAUSES AND SYMPTOMS OF DECLINE IN THE CLOTHING INDUSTRY	22
Pressures for Adjustment	23
Low Growth of Demand	23
Growth of Synthetic Materials	26
Composition of Demand and Distribution	27

Potential for Technological Advance	29
Growth of International Trade	32
Decline and Adjustment	40
Shifting Patterns of International Output	40
Employment: the Politically Visible Factor	41
General Decline in Trade Performance	55
Unit Labour Costs as a Measure of Performance	67
Determinants of Employment Losses	71
3 ADJUSTMENT STRATEGIES FOR SUSTAINED COMPETITIVENESS	78
Elements of an Adjustment Strategy	79
Limits to Technical Development	79
Size and Scale of Individual Companies	84
Wage Adjustment	87
Product and Market Shifts	90
Foreign Assembly and Sub-contracting	94
Foreign Direct Investment	104
Exit and Diversification	108
Integrated Approach to Survival and Prosperity	109
Judging Strategies by Performance	109
'Growth' Firms	111
'Struggling' Firms	113
'Comfortably Surviving' Firms	115
Ability to Adjust	117
4 GOVERNMENT STRATEGIES FOR EASING ADJUSTMENT	123
Trade Policy and Protection	124
Quantitative Restrictions on Imports of Clothing and Textiles	124
Tariffs and Preferences	132
Role of Protection	135
National Adjustment Policies	136

Industrial Policy in the European Community	136
Belgium: the Claes Plan	146
France: Modernisation Efforts	151
Federal Republic of Germany: an Anomaly	157
Italy: Direct State Participation	163
Netherlands: Collapse of Consensus	170
United Kingdom: from Jobs to Investment	177
United States: Protecting a Large Domestic Market	190
Japan: Positive Adjustments	198
Lessons of a Decade of Intervention	208
Market-led Industry Adjustment	217
Job Preservation	219
Technological Advance as Industrial Strategy	222
Failure of Restructuring Plans	223
Neo-liberal Approach	224
5 DECLINE, ADJUSTMENT OR RESURGENCE?
THE SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME	236
Private Adjustment Towards the 1990s	237
Issue of Protection	241
Challenge for Public Policy	243
Conclusion	247
LIST OF REFERENCES	250