
The Politics of Development in Botswana
A Model for Success?

Louis A. Picard

Lynne Rienner Publishers • Boulder & London

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
A Note on the Usage of Terms	ix
Preface	xi
1 The State and Society	1
2 The Tswana Politics and British Colonialism in Southern Africa	25
3 Bureaucrats and Chiefs: Contradictions of Indirect Rule	46
4 Recruitment in the Civil Service: The Oxbridge Model, Localization, and the Protectorate	70
5 Colonial Economic Policy: Benign Neglect or Structural Underdevelopment?	96
6 Crisis and Containment: The Limits of Nationalism in the Bureaucratic State	121
7 Independent Botswana: Containment, Electoral Mobilization, and the Multiparty System	145
8 Local Government Institutions: Patterns of Autonomy and Control	177
9 The Politics of Human Resource Constraints	202
10 Changing Rural Development Priorities in a Growth Economy	231
11 Conclusion	269
Selected Glossary	276
Selected Bibliography	281
Index	292