

FEEES MUST FALL

Student Revolt, Decolonisation
and Governance in South Africa

SUSAN BOOYSEN

WITS UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	vii
PREFACE David Everatt	viii
INTRODUCTION Susan Booysen	1
PART ONE: POWER REDEFINED – ‘WHAT HAPPENED TO GOVERNANCE?’	21
CHAPTER 1: Two weeks in October: Changing governance in South Africa Susan Booysen	22
PART TWO: PRIMARY VOICES – ‘THE ROOTS OF THE REVOLUTION’	53
CHAPTER 2: The roots of the revolution Gillian Godsell and Rekgotsofetse Chikane	54
CHAPTER 3: The game’s the same: ‘MustFall’ moves to Euro-America Sizwe Mpfu-Walsh	74
CHAPTER 4: #OutsourcingMustFall through the eyes of workers Omhle Ntshingila, in conversation with Richard Ndebele and Virginia Monageng	87
CHAPTER 5: Documenting the revolution Gillian Godsell, Refiloe Lepere, Swankie Mafoko and Ayabonga Nase	101
PART THREE: THE REVOLT – ‘RISING AGAINST THE LIBERATORS’, SOUTH AFRICA IN AFRICA	125
CHAPTER 6: Standing on the shoulders of giants? Successive generations of youth sacrifice in South Africa David Everatt	126
CHAPTER 7: Learning from student protests in sub-Saharan Africa Lynn Hewlett, Nomagugu Mukadah, Koifi Kouakou and Horácio Zandamela	148
CHAPTER 8: Unfinished revolutions: The North African uprisings and notes on South Africa William Gumede	169
PART FOUR: POWER AND CLASS REDEFINED – ‘SIT DOWN AND LISTEN TO US’	191
CHAPTER 9: To win free education, fossilised neoliberalism must fall Patrick Bond	192

CHAPTER 10: Bringing class back in: Against outsourcing during #FeesMustFall at Wits Vishwas Satgar	214
CHAPTER 11: Between a rock and a hard place: University management and the #FeesMustFall campaign Patrick FitzGerald and Oliver Seale	235
CHAPTER 12: Financing of universities: Promoting equity or reinforcing inequality Pundy Pillay	256
PART FIVE: JUSTICE, IDENTITY, FORCE AND RIGHTS – ‘WE CAME FOR THE REFUND’	269
CHAPTER 13: Excavating the vernacular: ‘Ugly feminists’, generational blues and matriarchal leadership Darlene Miller	270
CHAPTER 14: The South African student/worker protests in the light of just war theory Thaddeus Metz	292
CONCLUSION: Aluta Continua! Susan Booyesen	309
APPENDICES
APPENDIX 1: Annotated timeline of the #FeesMustFall revolt 2015-2016	316
APPENDIX 2: Student protest glossary of terms	328
APPENDIX 3: Key features of student protest across historical periods in sub-Saharan Africa	330
APPENDIX 4: Memorandum of understanding between the University of the Witwatersrand management, outsourced workers, and students	335
CONTRIBUTORS	338
INDEX	344