Table of Contents

Chapter 1
A Survey of Econometric Model-Building in East and Southeast Asia

1. Econometric Models for Developing Countries	1
2. National Econometric Models	3

Chapter 2
Hong Kong Model

1. Introduction	9
2. The Structure of the ERC Model	10
2.1 Personal Consumption Expenditure	10
2.2 Fixed Investment	10
2.3 Foreign Trade Sector	11
2.4 Manufacturing Sector	13
2.5 The Price Determination	14
2.6 The Monetary Sector	15
2.7 Taxes (TI, TD)	16
3. The 1983 Version of Estimated Equations	16
4. Simulation of the ERC Model	16
5. Impact and Dynamic Multipliers	18

Chapter 3
Taiwan Model

1. Introduction	35
2. The Model	35

3. Discussions on Behavioral Equations	36
3.1 Private Consumption	36
3.2 Private Fixed Investment	38
3.3 Inventory Investment	38
3.4 Export	38
3.5 Import	39
3.6 Depreciation, Tax and Transfer Payment	39
3.7 Price	39
3.8 Potential GDP	39
4. Test of the Model	39
5. Policy Simulation	40
5.1 A 10% Sustained Devaluation of NT	40
5.2 A One Billion NT Increase in Public Investment	40
6. Conclusion	40

Chapter 4 Korea Model

1. Introduction	51
2. Model	51
2.1 General Description of the Model	51
2.2 Workings of the Model	52
2.3 The Results of Estimation	53
3. The Properties of the Model	54
3.1 Error Analysis	54
3.2 Multiplier Analysis	54
4. Conclusion	55

Chapter 5 The Philippines Model

1. Introduction	67
2. Model Specification	68

2.1 Real and External Sector	68
2.2 Financial Sector	69
3. Estimation	70
4. Results / Findings	71
5. Evaluation of the Model: Ex-post or Historical Simulation	73
6. Dynamic Multiplier Analysis and Policy Simulation	76
7. Conclusion	77

Chapter 6

Thailand Model

1. Introduction	87
2. The Model	87
2.1 Description of the Model	87
2.2 Production	87
2.3 Imports Demand	88
2.4 Domestic Expenditure and Exports	89
2.5 Determination of Prices and Wage	89
2.6 Factors Income	90
3. Simulation	90
3.1 Final Test	90
3.2 Policy Simulation	90
4. Conclusion	92

Chapter 7

Malaysia Model

1. Introduction	103
2. Brief Survey of the Literature	103
3. The Model Specification	104
4. Simulation	105
5. Policy Simulation	105

Chapter 8 Singapore Model

1. Introduction	127
2. Structure of the Model	127
2.1 Expenditures in National Accounts (Block I)	128
2.2 Exports and Imports in Real Terms (Block II)	128
2.3 Employment, Wage and Prices (Block III)	128
2.4 Income Distributions (Block IV)	128
2.5 Money Supply (Block V or V')	128
3. Final Test and Shock Simulations	129

Chapter 9 Indonesia Model

1. Introduction	141
2. The Model	141
2.1 General Structure of the Model	141
2.2 Discussion of Selected Individual Equations	142
3. Final Test and Policy Simulations	144
Appendix to Chapter 9	161
A. Alternative specifications for the Price Determination in the Real Sector ...	161
B. Balance Sheets and Monetary Submodel	163

Chapter 10 Japan Model

1. Introduction	167
2. The Model	167
3. Final Test and Policy Simulations	168
4. Concluding Remarks	169

Chapter 11 The U.S.A. Model

1. Introduction	183
-----------------------	-----

2. Structural Equations System of the U.S.A. Model	183
3. Simulation Analysis of the U.S.A. Model	186
4. Concluding Remarks	187

Chapter 12

China Model

1. Trade-off Relations in Socialist Countries	199
2. An Outline of the Model	200
3. Simulation	203

Chapter 13

Asian Link System

1. Introduction	217
2. The Asian Link System	218
2.1 The Trade Model	219
2.2 Country Models	220
2.3 Rest of the World Models	221
2.4 Interface	221
3. Traceability of the System: 1972-1980	221
4. Policy Simulations: 1976-1980	224

Chapter 14

A Program System to Solve Linked Econometric Models

1. Programs for Econometric Models	247
1.1 Data Preparation	247
1.2 Method of Loading a Model into Program	248
1.3 Model Simulation	248
2. Solution Program for Linked Model	250
3. Linksim Program System at Kyoto University Center for SEAS	252
3.1 Preparation of National Models	252
3.2 Specification of Order for Solution	252
3.3 Table for Data Transfer	253

4. Conclusion	253
Data Appendix	255
Chapter 2 Hong Kong	256
Chapter 3 Taiwan	263
Chapter 4 Korea	274
Chapter 5 The Philippines	284
Chapter 6 Thailand	288
Chapter 7 Malaysia	294
Chapter 8 Singapore	299
Chapter 9 Indonesia	304
Chapter 10 Japan	310
Chapter 11 The U.S.A.	315
Chapter 12 China	318
Chapter 13 Asian Link System	322
