

THE RITUALS
OF DINNER

•

*The Origins, Evolution,
Eccentricities, and Meaning
of
Table Manners*

•

Margaret Visser

Grove Weidenfeld
NEW YORK

Contents

Introduction	ix
1. Behaving	1
The Artificial Cannibal	4
Ritual	17
Feasting and Sacrifice.....	27
2. Learning to Behave	39
Bringing Children Up.....	40
Inhibitions	56
Aspirations	69
3. The Pleasure of Your Company	79
Company	84
Hosts and Guests	90
Invitations	99
Coming Right In	109
Taking Our Places	121
4. Dinner Is Served	137
The First Bite	138
Taking Note of Our Surroundings	146
The Prospect Before Us	156
Fingers	167
Chopsticks	179
Knives, Forks, Spoons	183
Sequence	196
Helpings	210
Carving	227
The Red, the White, and the Gold	242
Table Talk	262
Feeding, Feasts, and Females.....	272
All Gone	284

5. No Offence	297
Pollution	300
The Rules and Regulations of the Mouth	309
The Proprieties of Posture and Demeanour	326
Postscript: How Rude Are We?	339
References	359
Bibliography	379
Index	417