War and Peace in Jewish Tradition

From the biblical world to the present

The Third Annual Conference of the Israel Heritage Department
The Ariel University Center of Samaria
Ariel, Israel

Edited by Yigal Levin and Amnon Shapira

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

List of contributors x
Foreword xii
Introduction 1

PART I
War and peace in the Bible 7

1 The freeing of captives in the Ancient Near East and in the Bible 9
DAVID ELGAVISH

2 "Set bread and water before them": Elisha's order to treat the enemy with mercy and its implications 26
AMICHAI NACHSHON

3 The wars of Joshua: weaning away from the divine 37
YIGAL LEVIN

4 "He teaches my hands to war": the semiotics of ritual hand gestures in ancient Israelite warfare 51
DAVID CALABRO

5 "Human, all too human": royal name-making in wartime 62
JACOB L. WRIGHT

6 Civil war in the Bible: an unsolved problem 78
AMNON SHAPIRA

7 Internecine wars in biblical Israel 89
MEIR BAR-ILAN

PART II
Theoretical aspects of war in rabbinic thought 101

8 War and aesthetics in Jewish law 103
JOSEPH ISAAC LIFSHITZ

9 The morality of war in rabbinic literature: the Call for Peace and the Limitation of the Siege 116
YISHAI KIEL

10 Peace, secularism, and religion 139
AVINOAM ROSENAK AND ALICK ISAACS

11 Moral considerations relating to criticism of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising: rabbinic literature and the Just War Theory 165
ISAAC HERSHKOWITZ

12 The law of obligatory war and Israeli reality 186
KALMAN NEUMAN

PART III
War and peace in modern Jewish thought and practice 201

13 "A victory of the Slavs means a deathblow to democracy": the onset of World War I and the images of the warring sides among Jewish immigrants in New York, 1914–16 203
GIL RIBAK

14 Ben Gurion and the onset of war 218
YOSSI GOLDSTEIN

15 The journey after – of one who saw the horrors of war: a study of Orpaz's The Voyage of Daniel 225
ZIVA FELDMAN

PART IV
Israel, war, ethics and the media 233

16 War, religion, and Israel's foreign press corps 235
YOEL COHEN

17 The New York Times' justification of its coverage of the Gaza war: an apologia 248
CAROL LEA CLARK

18 Media ethics in times of war 260
YUVAL CHERLOW

Epilogue 270
Bibliography 276
General index 305
Index of references 315