

Burak Akçapar

The International Law of Conventional Arms Control in Europe

A Survey into the Substantive, Formal and Procedural-
Institutional Elements of Contractual Conventional Arms
Control in Europe

Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft
Baden-Baden

Contents

Abbreviations and Acronyms	11
Acknowledgments	13
Introduction	15
Part One: Minimum World Order
Chapter I
The Legal Problem of Maintaining Minimum World Order
A. The Minimum World Order	25
1. Jus in bello	26
2. Jus ad bellum	26
3. Global organizations	27
4. The nature of international law	28
5. Methods of international law for regulating the use of force	30
B. Theories of Causes of War and their Impact on Arms Control Thinking	33
1. The relevance of the study of causes of war	33
2. Why do wars occur?	34
3. Do armaments cause war?	35
4. Critique of the spiral theory of war	37
5. Is cooperation impossible?	39
6. Wars have diverse causes	40
7. Reconciliation of military policy and arms control	42
8. Cooperation between/among antagonists	42
9. Assumptions about the nature of the international system	43
10. By way of conclusion	44

C. The Legal Bases of Disarmament and Arms Control	45
1. Nullum crimen (nulla poena) sine lege	45
2. A legal obligation to disarm?	48
3. Self-interest in international law and the law of arms control and disarmament	49
3a. The binding power of international law	50
3b. International law based on self-interest	52
3c. Arms control law based on self interest	52

Chapter II

The Functions, Methods and Contents of Arms Control Agreements

A. Disarmament and Arms Control as Separate Concepts	55
1. A note on different terminologies	55
2. Disarmament (arms reduction) approach	57
3. An introduction to arms control	60
B. Methods of Arms Control	65
1. Deterrence	65
2. The stability theory	67
C. Arms Control as a Political Process	71
1. Arms control as a negotiation process	73
2. Formal-informal arms control	74
3. Arms control and issue linkage	76
4. Arms control as a public relations exercise	81
5. Arms control as a form of communication	84
D. Critics of Arms Control	88
1. The critical view	88
2. Differing approaches to arms control	89
3. The mild critics	89

4. Sharper critics	91
5. Throwing the baby out with the bathwater	93
6. Problems of conventional arms control	96
7. On the importance of the conventional weapons	98
8. Qualitative differences between nuclear and conventional arms	99
9. Applicability of the arms control theory to conventional arms control	101

Part Two: International Law of Contractual Conventional Arms Control in Europe

Chapter III The Arms Control Agreement

A. The Written Arrangement in International Law-Making	109
1. International law-making in global society	109
2. Written arrangements in international law	110
3. Ex consensu advenit vinculum	111
4. The essential difference in legal consequence	112
B. Particularities of the Arms Control Agreements	113

Chapter IV The Substantive Element

A. The Legally Binding Agreement Approach: The CFE Treaty	117
1. The CFE Treaty: A brief presentation	117
2. CFE as a legally-binding treaty	119
3. The Treaty and the Protocols	120
4. A classification of the articles of the Treaty	122
5. States Parties to the Treaty	124
6. The area of application	125
7. The system of regional differentiation	126
8. The scope of the treaty and basic definitions	127
9. Limitations and the maximum entitlements	128
10. Stabilizing measures	129

11. Exchange of military information	131
12. Reductions	134
13. Inspections	136
B. Politically Binding Agreement Approach: The Vienna Document 1994	137
1. The process of security and cooperation in Europe and the CSBMs	137
2. The legal status of the Vienna Document	143
3. A framework classification for the Vienna CSBMs	144
4. Static and operational information exchange measures	145
4a. Static information exchange measures	145
4b. Operational information exchange measures	146
5. Contact and communication measures	148
5a. Communication measures	148
5b. Contact measures	149
6. Military activities' observation measures	150
7. Military stability (constraining) measures	151

Chapter V

The Formal Element

A. Pacta Sunt Servanda and the Verification of Compliance	152
1. Good-faith in international law	153
2. Verification as a compensatory mechanism	155
B. The Concept of Arms Control Verification	157
1. Connotations of the concept	157
2. Monitoring of compliance	161
2a. NTMs	161
2b. On-site inspections	163
C. Verification of the CFE Treaty	164
1. NTMs and MTMs	164
2. On-site inspections	166
2a. What is inspected?	168

2b. Who are the inspectors?	173
2c. What are the rights and duties of the inspectors?	174
2d. What are the rights and duties of the inspected State Party?	176
2e. How many inspections a State Party is obliged to accept and entitled to conduct?	178
2f. An example of the flow of a typical CFE inspection	182
D. Verification of the Vienna Document	183
1. NTMs	184
2. On-site inspections	185
2a. What is inspected?	187
2b. Who are the inspectors?	188
2c. What are the rights and duties of the inspectors and the receiving State?	188
2d. How many inspections a State Party is obliged to accept and entitled to conduct?	191
2e. An example of the flow of a typical CSBM inspection	191
3. The evaluation visit	192
3a. What is evaluated?	193
3b. Who are the evaluating inspectors? What are the rights and duties of the evaluation team and the receiving State?	195
3c. How many evaluations a State Party is obliged to accept and entitled to conduct?	195
3d. An example of the flow of a typical CSBM evaluation visit	196

Chapter VI

The Procedural-Institutional Element

A. The Arms Control Agreement and the Element of Change	197
1. The problem of managing the element of change in treaty-law	197
2. Modernization clauses in treaty-law	198
3. The CFE Treaty and new weapon systems	199
4. The Vienna Document and new weapon systems	200
5. Clausula rebus sic stantibus	201
B. Dispute Settlement under International Treaty-Law	202

C. The Dispute Settlement Mechanisms of the CFE Treaty	205
1. The Joint Consultative Group	206
1a. The functions and powers	206
1b. The working modalities and procedures	210
2. Conferences of the States Parties	211
2a. The review conference	211
2b. The extraordinary conference	212
2c. The amendment conference	213
2d. The withdrawal conference	214
D. Responses against Non-Compliance, and Sanctions	215
1. The relevance of the non-compliance question	215
2. Responses against violations under the general law of treaties	216
2a. Termination or suspension of a treaty	216
2b. The right of withdrawal from a treaty	218
3. Responses to treaty violations via international dispute settlement organs	219
3a. Judicial settlement and arbitration	220
3b. UN Security Council	220
3c. Dispute settlement bodies of the treaty proper	221
4. Sanctions in international law	221
4a. Retorsion	222
4b. Reprisal	222
4c. Some complications with regard to the notions of retorsion and reprisals	223
5. Non-compliance with the CFE Treaty	224
Concluding Remarks De Lege Feranda	229
Selected Bibliography	237
A. Books	237
B. Articles, published and unpublished manuscripts, periodicals	250
C. Primary sources	262
Selected Index	265