

THE AFRICAN EXPERIENCE WITH HIGHER EDUCATION

J.F. Ade Ajayi
Lameck K.H. Goma
G. Ampah Johnson with a contribution by
Wanjiku Mwotia

The Association of African Universities
ACCRA

in association with

JAMES CURREY
LONDON

OHIO UNIVERSITY PRESS
ATHENS

CONTENTS

List of Abbreviations	viii
Preface	xi
PART I: HISTORICAL BACKGROUND
Chapter 1: ANTECEDENTS, Before 1900	1
Introduction, 1; Indigenous education, 3; The Legacy of Alexandria, 5; Islamic education, 7; Afro-Christian and Western education, 12; The Freetown Debate, 1872-3, 16; Fourah Bay College, 1876, 21; Towards African Renaissance, 25
Chapter 2: COLONIALISM AND HIGHER EDUCATION	28
Education and Social Change, 28; Stimulating the Demand, 29; UNISA and Fort Hare College, 32; Colonial Policies, 37; The British Advisory Committee, 42; Cracks in the Wall, 49
Chapter 3: DECOLONIZATION AND HIGHER EDUCATION, 1945-1960	53
Decolonization, 53; The Asquith Colleges, 56; Dakar and Tananarive, 60; Colonial Universities of Zaire, 60; Pius XII College of Lesotho, 62; Liberia University and Haile Selassie I University, 63; University College of Rhodesia and Nyasaland, 65; Colonial Legacy, 67; Apartheid in South Africa, 70
Chapter 4: THE POLITICS OF INDEPENDENCE AND HIGHER EDUCATION 1960-70	74
Critique of Colonial Education, 74; The International Factor, 76; The Ashby Commission on Nigeria, 79; New Initiatives in Ghana, 86; Cautious Nationalism in Francophone Africa, 88; Attempted Federation in East, Central and Southern Africa, 92; Conclusion, 95

The African Experience

- Chapter 5: THE ASSOCIATION OF AFRICAN UNIVERSITIES 97
Antecedents, 97; Early History, 99; Student and Staff Exchange, 102; Information and Documentation Centre, 103; Programmes, 105; Financing, 106; AAU Evaluation, 109; Conclusion, 110
- Chapter 6: HIGHER EDUCATION AND AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT, 1970s and 1980s 112
Introduction, 112; National Universities in East Africa, 114; National Universities in Southern and Central Africa, 122; The National University of Zaire, 124; The University of Madagascar, 126; Higher Education and the Ethiopian Revolution, 127; University Autonomy and National Identity in Khartoum, 130; National Systems in Francophone Africa, 133; Sierra Leone and Ghana, 138; The Nigerian Federal System, 139; Conclusion, 142
- PART II: ISSUES AND PROBLEMS OF THE 1990s
- Chapter 7: THE PROBLEMS OF THE 1990s 144
Introduction, 144; Diminishing Financial Resources, 146; Stagnation and Deterioration of Physical Resources, 147; The Impact on Human Resources, 148; The Culpability of African Universities, 153; Doing More with Less, 154; Financing of Higher Education, 158; Dangerous Ambivalence, 160; Access and Equity, 161; Campus Politics, 163; Obstacles to Change in African Higher Education, 165
- Chapter 8: SPECIAL ISSUES 167
Academic Freedom and University Autonomy, 167; Continuing Relevance, 167; Accountability, 170; Effectiveness and Efficiency, 173; Periodic Evaluation, 174; Handbook on Academic Freedom and University Autonomy, 175; University Governance, 176; Appointment and Removal of Principal Officers, 180; Gender Perspectives, 183; Changing Perceptions of the Mission, 187
- PART III: TOWARDS THE 21ST CENTURY
- Chapter 9: THE MISSION OF THE UNIVERSITY REVIEWED 191
Introduction, 191; The African University in a Changing World,

Contents

193; 'The Developmental University', 199; Enhancing Profile, 201; Deteriorating Quality and Accelerating Demand, 203; The Quest for Excellence and Relevance, 206

Chapter 10: NEW EXPECTATIONS AND REORIENTATIONS	209
Introduction, 209; The Content of Education and Degree System, 209; The Imperative of Science and Technology in Development, 212; Steadfast Deployment at the Knowledge Frontier, 215; Postgraduate Education and Training, 221; The Imperative of Regional Cooperation, 223; Redressing the Gender Balance, 226
Chapter 11: THE OUTREACH	229
Marginalization of the African University, 229; University-Productive Sector Linkages, 231; The Quest for Identity, 234; The Continuing Need for an African Intellectual Community, 238; Leadership for the African University of the Future, 240
Appendices:
I. Handbook on Academic Freedom and University Autonomy	242
II. Code of Conduct for Academics	256
Selected Bibliography and References	263
Index	273