

Bargaining for Change

UNION POLITICS
IN NORTH AMERICA
AND EUROPE

Edited by

Miriam Golden

and Jonas Pontusson

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS

Ithaca and London

Contents

Preface	vii
✕ Introduction: Organizational and Political-Economic Perspectives on Union Politics Jonas Pontusson	1
Part 1 National Confederations and Wage Coordination
✕ 1 Union Politics, the Welfare State, and Intraclass Conflict in Sweden and Germany Peter Swenson	45
2 The Decentralization of Collective Bargaining in Belgium, France, and the United States Jeannette Money	77
Part 2 Industrial Unions and Sectoral Change
3 North American Autoworkers' Response to Restructuring Charlotte Yates	111

4	The Steel Crisis and Labor Politics in France and the United States Anthony Daley	146
5	Union Politics and the Restructuring of the British Coal Industry Peggy Kahn	181
 Part 3 Local Unions and Changes at the Firm Level
× 6	The Politics of Flexibility in the German Metalworking Industries Kathleen Thelen	215
× 7	Industrial Restructuring and Industrial Relations in the Italian Automobile Industry Richard Locke	247
8	Unions, New Technology, and Job Redesign at Volvo and British Leyland Jonas Pontusson	277
×	Conclusion: Current Trends in Trade Union Politics Miriam Golden	307
	Contributors	335
	Index	337