

The Military and Militarism in Africa

Edited by
Eboe Hutchful and Abdoulaye Bathily

CODESRIA BOOK SERIES

Contents

Introduction	I
Eboe Hutchful and Abdoulaye Bathily

Part I: The State of Theory

1. The Military, Militarisation and Democratisation in Africa: A Survey of Literature and Issues	1
Robin Luckham

Part II: Military Expenditure and National Security

2. Trends, Determinants and the Economic Effects of Military Expenditure in Sub-Saharan Africa	47
Nadir A. L. Mohammed
3. The Military and National Security in Africa	105
Sunday Abogonye Ochoche
4. Tank Tractor Trade-off in Sudan: The Socio-Economic Impact of Military Expenditure	129
Nadir A. L. Mohammed

Part III: Revolts from Below: Ranks' Insurrections

5. The Tanganyika Rifles and the Mutiny of January 1964	175
Nestor Luanda
6. Institutional Decomposition and Junior Ranks' Political Action in Ghana	211
Eboe Hutchful
7. The Military and Militarism in Africa: The Case of Ethiopia . . .	257
Bahru Zewde

Part IV: Reconstructing Civil-Military Relations

8. The Transformation of Civil-Military Relations in Tanzania . . .	291
Casta Tungaraza

9. The Army and Political Power in Senegal 315
 Moussa Paye and Momar Diop
10. Somalia: Personal Rule, Military Rule and Militarism 355
 Hussein M. Adam
11. The Currency of Militarism in Uganda 399
 Amii Omara-Otunnu

Part V: Militarisation, State Collapse and Reconstruction

12. Soldiers and 'Combatants': The Conquest of Political Power in Chad, 1965-1990 429
 Thierno Bah

Part VI: Between Authoritarianism and Democracy: Uncertain Transitions

13. Military Rule and Withdrawal from Power:
 The Case of Lesotho 471
 Khabele Matlosa
14. The Military and Nigerian Society: The Abacha Coup
 and the Crisis of Democratisation in Nigeria 503
 Julius Ihonvbere
15. The Popular Demand for Dismantling of the Apartheid Military Machine and Problems of Conversion of the Military Industrial Complex 541
 Horace Campbell

Part VII: The Transition to Democracy:
 Some Tentative Reflections

16. Taming the Monster: Democratisation and Demilitarisation . . 589
 Robin Luckham
17. Military Issues in the Transition to Democracy 599
 Eboe Hutchful