

WILLIAM BECKFORD
THE ELUSIVE ORIENTALIST

LAURENT CHÂTEL

VOLTAIRE FOUNDATION
OXFORD

www.voltaire.ox.ac.uk

Contents

List of illustrations and tables	ix
Dedication	xi
Frontispiece	xii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction	3
Part I. Orientalist Beckford	25
1. Turning East: Orientalist learning, aesthetics and taste	27
2. 'As Indian as ever': 'The long story'	67
3. 'Sparks of Orientalism': Beckford's 'children of the Nights '	99
4. 'Such a valuable morsel of Orientalism': Beckford's Vathek and its Episodes	123
Part II. In search of the author: authorised translations and translated authorship	153
5. '[N]os bons literateurs ont paru meme ignorer leur existence.' Invisible in France? The French reception of Beckford, 1760-1876	157
6. 'Inconnu dans les annales de la terre': the missed fortune of Beckford	185
Conclusion: Beckford re-Oriented	201
Appendix A. Beckford's Orientalist collection of books, prints and drawings	205
Appendix B. 'Beckford Orientalising': dreaming of Father Urreta's Ethiopian underworld	215
Bibliography	219
Index	243