

The Economics of Public Debt

Proceedings of a Conference held by the International Economic Association at Stanford, California

Edited by

Kenneth J. Arrow

and

Michael J. Boskin

M

MACMILLAN PRESS

in association with the
INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC ASSOCIATION

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
The International Economic Association	viii
List of Participants	x
Abbreviations and Acronyms	xii
Introduction Kenneth J. Arrow and Michael J. Boskin	xiii

PART I PUBLIC DEBT AND MACROECONOMICS

1 Deficits, Monetary Policy and Real Economic Activity Robert Eisner and Paul J. Pieper	3
Discussion	39
2 On the Relevance or Irrelevance of Public Financial Policy Joseph E. Stiglitz	41
Discussion	75
3 Concepts and Measures of Federal Deficits and Debt and their Impact on Economic Activity Michael J. Boskin	77
Discussion	112
4 Optimum Fiscal Policy when Monetary Policy is Bound by a Rule: Ramsey Redux Edmund S. Phelps and Kumaraswamy Velupillai	116

PART II PUBLIC DEBT AND EQUITY

5 Public Debt and Intergeneration Equity Richard A. Musgrave	133
--	-----

Discussion	146
6 Debt Burden and Intergeneration Equity Toshihiro Ihori	149
Discussion	191
PART III ASPECTS OF PUBLIC DEBT THEORY AND PRACTICE
7 Debt and Taxes in War and Peace: The Closed Economy Case J. S. Flemming	201
Discussion	224
8 Public Debt and Fiscal Policy in Developing Countries Vito Tanzi and Mario I. Blejer	230
9 Benefits and Burdens of Indexed Debt: Some Lessons from Israel's Experience Ephraim Kleiman	264
Discussion	287
10 Debt, Wealth and the Rate of Growth: An Exercise in Equilibrium Dynamics Stefano Gorini	292
Discussion	309
Index	311