Romantic Discourse and Political Modernity

Wordsworth, the Intellectual and Cultural Critique

Richard Bourke
Contents

Preface ix
Introduction 1

CHAPTER ONE: The Strategy of Denegation 15
- Criticism, Modernity and the Organic Tradition 23
- Custom and Dominion: Tintern Abbey 40
- Arnold, Hazlitt: ‘Roads to Wordsworth’ 57

CHAPTER TWO: Restoration and Republicanism 71
- Peace and Repose: Keats After Wordsworth 80
- Places of Retreat: Lakes, Vales and Borders 92
- The Interior as the Outside of Suffering 105

CHAPTER THREE: Principles of Restitution 135
- The Intellectual in the Manifest Scheme 144
- Dismantling the Critical Principle 162
- Legitimating Public Pleasure: Nutting, Lucy and Propriety 175

CHAPTER FOUR: Figuring a Beautiful Community 199
- De Quincey’s Pure Practice of Sublimity 202
- Restitution by Deviancy: ‘Resolution’ and ‘Independence’ 220
- Reading the Terrain of Politics: The Prelude 240

Conclusion 257
Notes 271

References 315
- Criticism, Aesthetics, Political Theory etc before 1790 315
- Writings of the Romantic Period 317
Contents

Victorian Criticism, Commentary and Prose . 320
Modern Criticism, Commentary and History 322

Index 337