

REMAKING
THE MODERN
WORLD 1900–2015

GLOBAL CONNECTIONS AND COMPARISONS

C. A. BAYLY

WILEY Blackwell

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Photo Credits	vii
Series Editor's Preface	ix
Christopher Bayly and the Making of World History	xiii
Preface	xix
Introduction	1
1 The World Crisis, c. 1900–1930: Europe and the “Middle East”	12
2 The World Crisis, c. 1900–1930: Africa, Asia and Beyond	29
3 Authoritarianism and Dictatorship Worldwide, c. 1900–1950	49
4 Democracies and Their Discontents, c. 1900–1950	67
5 The Depression: State Intervention and Popular Resistance	84
6 The Second World War and its Consequences	96
7 Peripheral Conflicts and the End of Old Regimes, c. 1945–1955	118
8 America's Hegemony and Colonialism's Finale, mid-1950s to 1970s	139
9 The “Tipping Point”: World Politics and the Shock of the “Long 1980s”	162
10 The Expansion of Human Knowledge: The Twentieth-Century Person and Society	179
11 The Self and Human Society	194
12 Arts, Literature and Entertainment: Crisis and Recovery	215
13 Religion: Contestation and Revival	231
14 A Century of Killing and a Century of Crime	247
15 Internationalism and Transnationalism in Theory and Practice	263
16 The Shadow of Empire in the Modern World	270
17 The Pressure of People	287
18 Between Two Centuries: Economic Liberalisation and Political Fragmentation, c. 1991 to 2015	298

Conclusion: Periods and Prophecy	323
Notes	333
Bibliography	363
Index	379