

Raymond
Leslie
Williams

The Twentieth-Century
Spanish American
Novel

University of Texas Press
Austin

1974
1975

Contents

Preface vii

Part I	The Literary Tradition and Modern Science, 1900–1921	1
ONE	Novelistic and Cultural Contexts at the Turn of the Century	3
TWO	Rereading Spanish American Classics	19
Part II	Traditional and Modernist Aesthetics, 1922–1940	35
THREE	Novelistic and Cultural Contexts in the 1920s and 1930s	37
FOUR	Rereading Spanish American Criollista Classics	53
FIVE	Rereading Novels of Vanguardia	69
Part III	The Rise of the Modernist Novel, 1941–1961	87
SIX	Novelistic and Cultural Contexts of Latin American Modernism	89
SEVEN	Rereading Spanish American Modernist Novels	105
Part IV	Modern and Cosmopolitan Works, 1962–1967	123
EIGHT	Novels and Contexts of the Boom and Beyond	125
NINE	Rereading Novels of the Boom	137
TEN	Rereading the Spanish American Novel beyond the Boom	149

vi The Twentieth-Century Spanish American Novel

Part V	Toward a Postboom, Feminist, and Postmodern Novel, 1968–1999	163
ELEVEN	Novelistic and Cultural Contexts in the 1970s and 1980s	165
TWELVE	Rereading the Spanish American Novel of the 1970s and 1980s	193
THIRTEEN	Modern, Postmodern, and Transnational: The Latin American Novel in the 1990s	205
	Notes	221
	Bibliography	239