
Bridges to the Future

Prospects for Peace and Security
in Southern Africa

EDITED BY

Hans-Joachim Spanger
and Peter Vale

WestviewPress

A Division of HarperCollinsPublishers

Contents

Foreword , Desmond M. Tutu	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
About the Contributors	xvii
1 Appreciating Updike's Syndrome: Southern African Security in the 1990s, Peter Vale	1
2 Regional Economic Co-operation and the Development Challenge in Southern Africa, Robert Davies	13
3 Time to Decide: Rethinking the Institutional Framework of Regional Co-operation in Southern Africa, Peter Meyns	33
4 Organizing Collective Security: African Experiences, Ivor Richard Fung	61
5 Crisis Prevention and Conflict Management in Southern Africa in the Post-Cold War Era, Willie Breytenbach and Pál Dunay	91
6 Security Dilemmas in Southern Africa: A Case for Confidence-building Measures? Hans-Joachim Spanger	107
7 Establishing Democratic Defence Forces in Mozambique: A Case Study, Joao Bernardo Honwana	147
8 Towards a Security Regime in Southern Africa: Some Working Suggestions, Hans-Joachim Spanger and Peter Vale	167
About the Book and Editors	189
Index	191