

TURKEY AND THE UNITED STATES

The Arms Embargo Period

Richard C. Company, Jr.

PRAEGER

New York
Westport, Connecticut
London

CONTENTS

PREFACE	v
1. INFLUENCE AND EMBARGOES	1
The United States and Turkey	1
Nature of Alliances	2
Influence, Interference, and Embargoes	6
Notes	9
2. TURKISH FOREIGN RELATIONS	11
Origins of Turkish Foreign Policy	11
Early U.S.-Turkish Relations	13
The Eastern Question	14
Nationalist Foreign Policy	18
The United States Comes to Turkey	20
Turkey, Greece, and Cyprus	27
Notes	34
3. DOMESTIC COMPONENTS OF TURKISH FOREIGN POLICY	40
The Formal Decision-Making Process	40
Political Maneuvering, 1973-1980	43
Political Violence	48
Domestic Views on Cyprus	52
Notes	53
4. CONFRONTATION: THE UNITED STATES AND TURKEY FACE THE EMBARGO	55
Decision Making	55
Capitulations Revisited	57
Cyprus Negotiations	61
Aid Restored	63
Effectiveness of the Embargo	65
Post-Embargo Developments	66
Notes	71

5.	THE ARMS EMBARGO AS A TOOL OF INFLUENCE	75
	Issues in the United States and Turkey	75
	Thoughts on Alliances	79
	Embargoes as Tools of Influence	82
	Greece, NATO, and Cyprus: the Southern Flank	84
	Conclusions	87
	Notes	88
	APPENDIXES	91
	1. Treaty of Commerce and Navigation Between the Ottoman Empire and the United States	92
	2. Aid to Turkey Agreement	96
	3. Agreement Implementing NATO Status of Forces Agreement	100
	4. U.S.-Turkey Defense and Economic Cooperation Agreement	103
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	125
	INDEX	143
	ABOUT THE AUTHOR	147