

World Leadership and Hegemony

edited by

David P. Rapkin

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
1 The Contested Concept of Hegemonic Leadership David P. Rapkin	1
2 The Turn of Two Centuries: A Comparison of British and U.S. Hegemonies Lars Mjøset	21
3 The Legitimation of Hegemonic Power G. John Ikenberry & Charles A. Kupchan	49
4 Power, Productivity, and the State: The Social Relations of U.S. Hegemony Mark E. Rupert	71
5 A Gramscian Concept of Declining Hegemony: Stages of U.S. Power and the Evolution of International Economic Relations Alan W. Cafruny	97
6 The Emerging Hegemony of Transnational Capital: Trilateralism and Global Order Stephen Gill	119
7 The G-7 After Hegemony: Compatibility, Cooperation, and Conflict Robert T. Kudrle & Davis B. Bobrow	147

8	Spending, Deficits, and Welfare Trade-Offs: Cause or Effect of Leadership Decline? Karen A. Rasler	169
9	Japan and World Leadership? David P. Rapkin	191
10	The Limits of Hegemony: Capitalism and Global State Formation Christopher Chase-Dunn	213
11	Global Leadership: End Game Scenarios George Modelski	241
	References	257
	Index	279
	About the Book	285