

Uncertainty in Economic Thought

Edited by

Christian Schmidt

Professor of Economics, University of Paris-Dauphine, France

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Brookfield, US

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction: What is certainty in economic uncertainties? Christian Schmidt	1

PART ONE FOUNDATIONS AND CONCEPTS

1 Varieties of uncertainty Mark Perlman and Charles R. McCann, Jr.	9
2 Some misunderstanding on uncertainty in modern classical economics Paul Davidson	21
3 Ignorance and the absence of probabilities Omar Hamouda and Robin Rowley	38
4 Risk and uncertainty: a Knightian distinction revisited Christian Schmidt	65

PART TWO MAIN TRENDS IN THE HISTORY OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT

5 Uncertainty and subjectivism: the role of uncertainty in the Austrian School Pierre Garelo	87
6 Money and uncertainty in the economic thought of Carl Menger Thierry Aimar	100
7 Radical uncertainty and its economic scope according to Knight and according to Keynes Maurice Netter	112
8 Uncertainty in the writings of Kondratiev Alain Carry	126

PART THREE STATISTICS AND MATHEMATICAL APPROACHES

9 From errors theory to linear regression Claude Meidinger	149
--	-----

vi	Uncertainty in economic thought
10	From games of pure chance to strategic games: French probabilists and early game theory Robert W. Dimand and Mary Ann Dimand	157
11	The best and the worst in G.L.S. Shackle's decision theory Jean-Marc Ponsonnet	169
12	'Hazard', determinism and economic fluctuations in Maurice Allais's thought Georges Prat	197
	Index	233