

---

Orientalism, postmodernism and globalism

---

Bryan S. Turner

London and New York

---

Contents

---

List of tables	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Part I Orientalism
1 Orientalism, postmodernism and religion	3
2 Orientalism and the problem of civil society in Islam	20
3 Accounting for the Orient	36
Part II Orientalists
4 Conscience in the construction of religion	53
5 Gustave von Grunebaum and the mimesis of Islam	67
Part III Globalism
6 Politics and culture in Islamic globalism	77
7 From orientalism to global sociology	95
8 The concept of 'the world' in sociology	105
Part IV Intellectuals and postmodernism
9 Nostalgia, postmodernism and the critique of mass culture	117
10 Two faces of sociology: global or national?	132
11 Ideology and utopia in the formation of an intelligentsia	144

Part V Modernity

12 12 From regulation to risk	167
13 The self and reflexive modernity	183
14 Conclusion	197
References	209
Index	224