

Australian Poverty: Then and Now

*Edited by Ruth Fincher,
Professor of Urban Planning, University of Melbourne
and John Nieuwenhuysen, Chief Executive,
Committee for Economic Development of Australia*

MELBOURNE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Foreword Jean and Davis McCaughey	v
Ronald Henderson: An Appreciation John Nieuwenhuysen	xii
Acknowledgements	xvii
Notes on Contributors	xviii
 Introduction	 1
1 Policies: Past and Present Ian Manning	10
2 Voices of Poverty Janet Taylor and Michael Challen	33
3 Setting the Poverty Agenda: The Origins and Impact of the Henderson Report Peter Saunders	52
4 Income Poverty Since the Early 1970s Anthony King	71
5 Poverty and the Collapse of Full Employment Bob Gregory and Peter Sheehan	103
6 Poverty and the Life Cycle David Johnson and Peter Dawkins	127
7 The Locations of Poverty and Disadvantage Ruth Fincher and Maryann Wulff	144
8 Housing and Poverty Terry Burke	165
9 Poverty and Health Alison McClelland and Richard Scotton	185

10	Poverty, Education and Training
	Lois Foster and Lesleyanne Hawthorne	203
11	Poverty and the Law: What Price Citizenship?
	Terry Carney	220
12	Indigenous Poverty
	Jon Altman and Boyd Hunter	238
13	Immigrants and Poverty
	Lynne Williams and Trevor Batrouney	258
14	Poverty, Gender and Sole Parenthood
	Sheila Shaver	276
15	The Poverty of Homelessness
	Peter Burke	293
16	Disability and Poverty
	Brendan Gleeson	314
	Bibliography	334
	Index	367