

EAST CENTRAL EUROPE AFTER THE WARSAW PACT

---

Security Dilemmas in the 1990s

Andrew A. Michta

Foreword by
VOJTECH MASTNY

Contributions in Political Science, Number 296
Global Perspectives in History and Politics

George Schwab, Series Adviser

GREENWOOD PRESS

NEW YORK • WESTPORT, CONNECTICUT • LONDON

---

CONTENTS

|   |   |      |
|---|---|------|
|   | Acknowledgments                                | xi   |
|   | Foreword by Vojtech Mastny                     | xiii |
|   | Introduction  | 1    |
| 1 | The Legacy of Geopolitics, 1918–1985                  | 13   |
|   | The Region  | 13   |
|   | The Impact of World War I                             | 14   |
|   | Successor States in East Central Europe               | 15   |
|   | The Ethnic Dilemma                                    | 18   |
|   | Security Cooperation in the Interwar Period           | 20   |
|   | Irrelevant Alliances: A Different Kind of Regionalism | 22   |
|   | The Impact of World War II                            | 26   |
|   | The Warsaw Pact under Khrushchev                      | 31   |
|   | Warsaw Pact Reforms under Brezhnev                    | 35   |
| 2 | The Collapse of the Warsaw Pact                       | 43   |
|   | “New Thinking” on Soviet Security                     | 43   |
|   | Defense Spending Cuts and WTO Force Restructuring     | 46   |
|   | WTO War Planning after Force Reductions               | 49   |
|   | A New WTO Military Doctrine                           | 51   |
|   | German Reunification and WTO Military Planning        | 54   |
|   | Rebellion within the Pact                             | 56   |
|   | The Soviet Troop Withdrawal                           | 58   |
|   | The Collapse of the WTO Military Organization         | 60   |

|          |  |            |
|----------|--|------------|
|          | A New Strategy for the Soviet Army                     | 61         |
|          | “New Cooperation Model” after the WTO                  | 64         |
| 3 | Poland between Two Great Powers                 | 73  |
|          | Dilemmas of Polish Geography                           | 73         |
|          | Polish-German Relations                                | 76         |
|          | Skubiszewski’s Two-Track Eastern Policy                | 78         |
|          | Instability in Non-Russian Republics and Kaliningrad   | 80         |
|          | Relations with NATO and Regional Cooperation           | 86         |
|          | “Armed Forces ’90” Military Reforms                    | 90         |
|          | Toward a Professional Army and Civilian Control        | 93         |
|          | New Military Doctrine                                  | 97         |
|          | Equipment Modernization                                | 99         |
|          | Prospects for the Future                               | 101        |
| 4 | Czechoslovakia in Search of Confederated Europe | 105 |
|          | Collective Security and Soviet Pressure                | 105        |
|          | Slovak Separatism                                      | 107        |
|          | National Security Policy                               | 110        |
|          | Bilateralism   | 111        |
|          | Relations with the West                                | 112        |
|          | The CSCE Process                                       | 114        |
|          | Military Reform: Vacek’s Legacy                        | 117        |
|          | Military Reform: Dobrovsky’s Tenure                    | 118        |
|          | Semiprofessional Army: Military Reform through 2005    | 121        |
|          | Civilian Control and Partial Depoliticization          | 122        |
|          | New Military Doctrine                                  | 125        |
|          | Weapons Modernization and Regional Cooperation         | 126        |
|          | Future Regional Instability                            | 128        |
| 5 | Hungary’s Road to Western Europe                | 135 |
|          | National Security Policy                               | 135        |
|          | Pressure for the Dissolution of the Warsaw Pact        | 136        |
|          | Hungarian-Soviet Tension in 1991                       | 141        |
|          | Relations with the West                                | 143        |
|          | NATO Membership  | 146        |
|          | Regional Cooperation and Bilateral Military Agreements | 148        |
|          | Military Reform  | 150        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| New Military Doctrine                            | 153 |
| The Defense Industry                             | 155 |
| Reform of the Ministry of Defense and the Budget | 157 |
| Contingency Planning                             | 159 |
| Conclusion: Europe's New Eastern Frontier        | 167 |
| Selected Bibliography                     | 177 |
| Index                                     | 187 |