

FAY CHUNG

Re-living the Second Chimurenga

---

Memories from the Liberation Struggle in Zimbabwe

With an introduction by Preben Kaarsholm

THE NORDIC AFRICA INSTITUTE, 2006
Published in cooperation with Weaver Press

Contents

Introduction: Memoirs of a Dutiful Revolutionary Preben Kaarsholm .....	7
1. Growing up in Colonial Rhodesia .....	27
2. An Undergraduate in the '60s .....	39
3. Teaching in the Turmoil of the Townships .....	46
4. In Exile in Britain .....	65
5. Learning from the Zambia of the 1970s .....	71
6. Joining the Liberation Struggle in Zambia .....	75
7. Josiah Tongogara: Commander of ZANLA .....	124
8. Post- Détente Intensification of the War: Nyadzonja and Chimoio .....	140
9. The Formation of the Zimbabwe People's Army (ZIPA), 1976 .....	145
10. The Geneva Conference: Old Enemies and New Friends .....	153
11. Post- Détente and the Defeat of the ZANU Left Wing .....	171
12. I End Up in a Military Camp .....	189
13. Traditional Religion in the Liberation Struggle .....	197
14. The Formation of the ZANU Department of Education .....	203
15. The Internal Settlement and Intensified Armed Struggle .....	229
16. The Lancaster House Agreement .....	242
17. Prelude to Independence .....	248
18. The Fruits of Independence .....	254
19. A Vision of Zimbabwe Tomorrow .....	327
Appendix 1: The Mgagao Declaration by Zimbabwe Freedom Fighters (October, 1975) .....	340
Appendix 2: Curriculum Vitae: Fay Chung .....	347
Acronymes .....	351
Index of names .....	353