

Prester John

the Mongols and the Ten Lost Tribes

Edited by Charles F. Beckingham
and Bernard Hamilton

VARIORUM
1996

Contents

Acknowledgements		vii
List of Contributors		ix
Abbreviations		x
Editors' Preface		xi
I	C.F. BECKINGHAM	The Achievements of Prester John	1
THE PRESTER JOHN TEXTS
II	F. ZARNCKE	The Patriarch John of India and Prester John	23
III	F. ZARNCKE	Prester John's Letter to the Byzantine Emperor Emanuel, with a note by B. Hamilton on Additional Latin Manuscripts of the Letter	39
IV	F. ZARNCKE	Alexander III's Letter to Prester John	103
INTERPRETATIONS
V	P. PELLIOT	Two passages from 'La Prophétie de Hannan, fils d'Isaac'	113
VI	J. RICHARD	The Relatio de Davide as a source for Mongol History and the Legend of Prester John	139
VII	D. MORGAN	Prester John and the Mongols	159
VIII	B. HAMILTON	Prester John and the Three Kings of Cologne	171

IX	A.A. VASILIEV	Prester John and Russia, edited by W.F. Ryan	187
X	C.F. BECKINGHAM	An Ethiopian Embassy to Europe, c. 1310	197
XI	C.F. BECKINGHAM	Prester John in West Africa	207
XII	D. WASSERSTEIN	Eldad ha-Dani and Prester John	213
XIII	B. HAMILTON	Continental Drift: Prester John's Progress through the Indies	237
XIV	C.F. BECKINGHAM	The Quest for Prester John	271
		A Select Bibliography of Works on Prester John	291
		Index	305