CONTENTS

Introduction .......................................................... 1

Chapter One: The Prosopography .................................... 5

1.1 The system of names in John ................................. 5
1.2 First observations ............................................. 8
1.3 The formal characteristics of the system of names in Ephesus 11
1.3.1 The indications of relationship ......................... 11
1.3.2 The indications of place ................................ 16
1.3.3 The epithets ................................................ 17
1.3.4 The indications of function ............................ 18
1.4 John's name system in the context of Ephesus ........... 22
1.4.1 The literary effect of the similarities ................. 22
1.4.2 The literary effect of the differences ................. 23

Chapter Two: Jesus and the authorities in Ephesus ............ 25

2.1 The titles of Jesus in John's Gospel ....................... 25
2.1.1 Jesus as king ........................................... 26
2.1.2 Jesus as the son of God ................................ 27
2.1.3 Jesus as God ........................................... 29
2.1.4 Jesus as the Lord ....................................... 30
2.1.5 Jesus as the saviour of the world ................. 32
2.2 The use of the titles in Ephesus ......................... 33
2.2.1 βασιλείς in Ephesus ................................. 33
2.2.2 The titles of the emperor
   ὁ νιὸς τοῦ θεοῦ; θεός; κύριος; σωτήρ .................. 38
2.2.3 The titles of Artemis
   ἡ θεός; ἡ θεᾶ; κυρία; σωτείρα ......................... 48
2.3 Jesus and the politico-religious authorities ............... 52
2.3.1 Jesus as king ......................................... 52
2.3.2 Jesus as son of God and as God ................... 53
2.3.3 Jesus as Lord ........................................ 55
2.3.4 Jesus as Saviour .................................... 56
Chapter Three: Embedding John in the city life of Ephesus

3.1 City and country
3.1.1 City and country in John’s text
3.1.2 The interferences with the Ephesus context
3.2 The social realities in John’s text
3.2.1 Work and ideas about work
3.2.2 Free persons, servants, and slaves
3.2.3 Income, expenses, professional activity, and social contacts
3.2.4 The people in authority
3.3 The interferences with the Ephesus context
3.3.1 The presence of slaves
3.3.2 The working population
3.3.3 The high priests
3.3.4 The relation between the proconsul and the citizens of Ephesus

Chapter Four: Group formations in John and in Ephesus

4.1.1 The scope of Jesus’ teaching activity
4.1.2 Some special characteristics of Jesus’ teaching activity
4.1.2.1 The dialogue character of the text
4.1.2.2 Jesus’ miracles as signs
4.1.2.3 The many meals
4.1.3 The special characteristics of the group of the disciples
4.1.3.1 The group of disciples as a group of friends
4.1.3.2 The special position of the beloved disciple
4.1.3.3 The position of women in the group around Jesus
4.2 The interferences with the Ephesus context
4.2.1 The travelling teachers
4.2.2 The doctrine, the miracles, the meals
4.2.2.1 The attention for the form and the content of the doctrine
4.2.2.2 The combination with the miracles
4.2.2.3 The intense attention for the meals
4.2.3 The group of the disciples
4.2.3.1 The religious groups and associations in Ephesus
4.2.3.2 The beloved disciple
4.2.3.3 The position of women in Ephesus
CONTENTS

Chapter Five: The Passion narrative and the God Emperor ........ 165

5.1 The questioning of Jesus by Pilate (Jn 18:28-19:16) ............ 165
5.2 The emperor and the emperor cult in Ephesus .................. 174
  5.2.1 The emperor in the city ...................................... 174
  5.2.2 The emperor and his family .................................. 181
  5.2.3 The emperor and the cult .................................... 188
  5.2.4 The emperor and his promoters ............................... 197
  5.2.5 The imperial temples ........................................ 204
5.3 The interferences with John’s text ............................... 213
  5.3.1 The proclamation of Jesus as king in God’s name
       by the soldiers, the people, and the Senate ................. 213
  5.3.2 Pilate as friend of the emperor and the power from above ... 216
  5.3.3 “We have no king but the emperor” (Jn 19:15) .............. 216

Select Bibliography ................................................. 221

Index of modern authors ........................................... 231