

Nathan Samwini

The Muslim Resurgence in Ghana since 1950

Its Effects upon Muslims and Muslim-Christian Relations

LIT

THE MUSLIM RESURGENCE IN GHANA SINCE 1950 AND ITS EFFECTS UPON MUSLIMS AND MUSLIM-CHRISTIAN RELATIONS.....	i
Abstract	i
Acknowledgements	ii
Dedication	iii
Abbreviations	5
Note on Terminology and Transliteration	9
Chapter One.....	11
Introduction: Background to the Study	11
1.1 Reason for the Study	11
1.2 Methodology and outline of sources used	12
1.2.1 Constitutions.....	13
1.2.2 Handbooks.....	13
1.2.3 Profiles	14
1.2.4 Speeches, addresses and minutes of official meetings	14
1.3 Principles of conducting interviews	14
1.4 Review of Literature.....	16
1.5 Summary of Chapters.....	20
Chapter Two.....	22
Muslims and Christians in Ghana before 1950: A historical Overview	22
2.1 Introduction	22
2.2 Islam and Islamic Groups, 1806-1950.....	22
2.2.1 Islam in the Northern Kingdoms	23
2.2.2 Gonja Muslims	24
2.2.3 Wala Muslims.....	27
2.2.4 Mamprugu Muslims	28
2.2.5 Dagomba Muslims	29
2.3 Islam in Southern Ghana	30
2.3.1 Asante.....	30
2.3.2 Other Southern Ghana centres.....	35
2.3.3 Accra and other Coastal Towns.....	35
2.4 The Suwari School of thought.....	38
2.5 Muslims of Ghana and the Wider World of Islam.....	42
2.6 Christian missionary activity in Southern Ghana, 1828-1950.....	43
2.6.1 The Basel (Presbyterian) Mission.....	43
2.6.2 The Wesleyan (Methodist) Mission	46
2.6.3 The Bremen (Evangelical Presbyterian) Mission	48
2.6.4 The Roman Catholic Mission.....	50
2.6.5 Protestant Missions in the Northern Territories, 1910 - 1950	52
2.6.6 The African Methodist Episcopal Zion	53
2.6.7 The Church of the Twelve Apostles	55
2.6.8 Respect for Mission Territories	57
2.7 Impact of Islam and Christianity on the People.....	58
2.7.1 Islamic Impact	59
2.7.2 Christian Impact	61
2.8 Conclusion.....	64
Resurgence and Relationships I: The Foundations of Muslim Resurgence in Ghana, 1900 - 1950.....	66
3.1 Introduction	66
3.2 The Süff turuq, and "the other"	67

3.2.1 The Tijāniyya and the Qādiriyya	67
3.3 The Mahdī Movement	76
3.4 Ethnic Preference, Muslim Voluntary Associations and Islamic Universalism	79
3.5 The Ahmadiyya Mission: Heterodox and A Stimulant	86
3.5.1 Impact of the Ahmadiyya Mission	89
3.5.2 The Effects of the Ahmadiyya Mission on Muslims and non Muslims	91
3.6 Colonial Rule and Muslim Resurgence before 1950	96
3.7 Muslims' Relations with non-Muslims	99
3.7.1 The North	99
3.7.2 The South	101
3.8 Some Areas of Muslim-Christian Direct Encounters	103
3.9 Conclusion.....	104
Chapter Four.....	106
Resurgence and Relationships II – The Principles and Practice of Selected Muslim Groups	106
4.1 Introduction	106
4.1.1 Background to the Muslim Programmes and Activities	107
4.2 The Constitution, Theology and Practice of the Tijāniyya and Affiliate Bodies....	109
4.2.1 Tijāniyya (and Affiliated Bodies) Programmes and Activities.....	113
4.2.2 Tijāniyya Religious Programmes: Orthodox, Mystical or Syncretistic?	113
i. The mawlid al-nabī	114
ii. The funeral Rites for the dead.....	115
iii. The manufacture of Charms and Amulets.....	116
iv. The Exorcism of witchcraft spirits	118
4.2.3 Tijāniyya and Western type education: A new breed of scholars.....	120
4.2.4 The Media: A New Facility for the Muslim Resurgence.....	131
4.2.5 Media Control and Muslim Pressure Groups	133
4.2.6 Muslim Independent Associations and Organisations: Affiliates to the Tijāniyya.....	135
4.2.7 Muslim Women's Associations: The hijāb in Public life	136
i. Zumunchi	136
ii. The Federation of Muslim Women's Associations of Ghana (FOMWAG).....	137
4.2.8 Islamic Council for Development and Humanitarian Services (ICODEHS).....	141
4.2.9 Analysis of Tijāniyya (and Affiliated Bodies) Activities	145
4.3 The Ahmadiyya Muslim Mission: Constitution, ideology, pro grammes and activities	147
Ahmadiyya Muslim Mission, Ghana, Organogram as perceived by the Researcher....	149
4.3.1 The Amīr	151
4.3.2 Wakalāt ta'lim, Education	152
4.3.3 Wakalāt tasnif, Department for Publications.....	153
4.3.4 Wakalāt tabshīr, Theological Propaganda	154
4.3.5 Duties of Ahmadiyya Missionaries	156
4.3.6 Secretary tabligh, Preaching	157
4.3.7 Secretary sam 'i wa basari , Audio and Visual	158
4.3.8 The Programmes and Activities of the AMM	159
4.3.9 1950 to July 1974: The Era of the Pakistani Missionaries.....	160
4.3.10 August 1974 to Date: Indigenisation of AMM?	164
Ahmadiyya Muslim Mission Socio-Religious Activities – Progress Chart.....	169
4.4 Ahlus Sunna wal-Jama'a: militant or legalistic Islam?	172
4.4.1 The Constitution and theological Principles of the ASWAJ	174

4.4.2 Decentralisation of Structures	177
4.4.3 ASWAJ's Programmes and activities.....	179
4.4.4 Saudi Arabia and Egypt: Facilitators of the ASWAJ Courses.....	182
4.5 Conclusion.....	187
Chapter Five.....	191
The Effects of Muslim Resurgence	191
5.1 Introduction	191
5.2 Effects of The Muslim Resurgence on Relationships.....	192
5.2.1 Effects of the Muslim Resurgence on Muslim-Muslim Relations	193
5.2.2 Effects of the Muslim Resurgence on Muslim-non-Muslim Relations	200
5.3 Attempts at Fostering Tolerance and Recognition for the Other	208
5.3.1 Al-da 'wa al-islāmiyya (World Islamic Call Society, WICS).....	208
5.3.2 The INDICOMs: A Roman Catholic Framework for Toler-ance.....	211
5.3.3 The Protestant churches and Religious Tolerance.....	216
i. Project for Christian-Muslim Relations in Africa: The Ghana Committee	217
5.3.4 The Forum of Religious Bodies (FORB)	219
5.3.5 Local Inter-religious Committees	223
5.4 Government and Religious Tolerance and Recognition.....	225
5.5 Individual Muslim Initiatives	228
5.6 Conclusion.....	231
Chapter Six.....	233
Concluding Observations: Present and Future Possibilities	233
6.1 Summaries of chapters	233
6.2 The Muslim Resurgence.....	237
6.2.1 The Tijāniyya and the Muslim Resurgence	238
6.2.2 The Ahmadiyya Muslim Mission and the Muslim Resurgence.....	244
6.2.3 The Ahlus Sunna wal-Jama'a and the Muslim Resurgence	246
6.2.4 The International Community and the Muslim Resurgence	249
6.3 Future Possibilities	252
Bibliography.....	257
Primary Sources	257
(a) Minutes, Speeches, Addresses, Reports etc.	257
(b) Handbooks, Profiles and working Papers	260
(c) Archival Material, PRAAD.....	261
- Accra and Tamale Regional Office.....	261
(d) Local Newspapers and Electronic news Cited	262
(e) Legal Documents Cited.....	263
Interviews.....	264
Secondary Sources	268
Books.....	268
Essays in Books.....	279
Articles in Journals.....	280
Theses.....	284
Contents to the Appendices	286
Appendix I.....	287
Appendix II	289
Expanded list of Muslim Groups and Organisations in Ghana	289
Muslim Groups in Ghana	289
Muslim Organisations in Ghana	289
Appendix III	293

Muslim Media Use	293
The Print Media.....	293
Other Printed Material.....	293
Television.....	294
Radio	295
Music.....	297
Appendix IV	300
Code of Conduct for FOMWAG Officials	300
1. Comportment and Press.....	300
2. FOMWAG as a Religious Organisation	300
3. Avoidance of Tribalism.....	300
4. Relations Between FOMWAG Officials.....	300
a. The Leaders	300
b. Teamwork.....	301
c. Disputes	301
d. Allegations of Mismanagement or Financial Impropriety.....	301
1. Islamic Principles of Selecting Leaders.....	302
2. FOMWAG as a Federation of Organizations	302
3. Electoral Colleges.....	302
4. Avoidance of Campaign for Office	302
5. Terms of Office	303
The Reasons for these Provisions are:.....	303
6. Procedure for Elections	303
b. Proximity of Amirah, Secretary & Treasurer/Financial Secretary	304
c. Regional and District Headquarters of FOMWAG.....	304
d. Notice of Elections	304
e. Election Procedure.....	305
(ii) Eligibility to Vote Only After Payment of Annual Dues.....	305
(iii) Nominations	305
(iv) Biographical Information.....	305
(v.) The Ballot	306
(vi) The Count	306
(vii) Allocation of Posts	306
f. Presence of Officials of the National Executive	307
Appendix V	308
Additional AMM Administrative Structures	308
Majlis 'Amila, Executive Committee.....	308
Secretary Nusrat Jahan	308
Appendix VI.....	310
Additional Constitutional/Administrative Structures of ASWAJ.....	310
Organogram of the
Constitutional Structures of the Ahlus Sunna wal Jama'a of Ghana.....	311
Tenure of Office.....	312
Functions of Officers and Committees.....	313
Appendix VII.....	316
PROCMURA Activities in Ghana.....	316
Appendix VIII	320
Appendix IX.....	322
Appendix X	323
Appendix XI.....	325

Appendix XII.....	325
Appendix XIII.....	326
MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF RELIGIOUS LEADERS HELD ON 26TH JANUARY, 1996, AT THE CONFERENCE ROOM OF THE CHRISTIAN COUNCIL OF GHANA	326
1.0 PRESENT.....	326
2.0 OPENING:.....	326
3.0 PURPOSE OF MEETING	326
4.0 THE WAY FORWARD.....	327
5.0 COUNCIL OF CHARISMATIC CHURCHES.....	327
6.0 ANY OTHER MATTER.....	328
(a) Religious Consultative Committee	328
7.0 NEXT MEETING	328
8.0 APPRECIATION	328
9.0 CLOSING.....	328
Appendix XIV	329
Appendix XV	331
MINUTES OF MEETING BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF HEADS OF MEMBER CHURCHES OF THE CHRISTIAN COUNCIL OF GHANA AND LEADERS OF THE FEDERATION OF MUSLIM COUNCILS OF GHANA HELD ON 5TH OCTOBER 1995	331
0.1 PRESENT:.....	331
0.2 OPENING	331
0.3 SELF-INTRODUCTION.....	332
0.4 PURPOSE OF MEETING	332
0.5 Goodwill Visit to Sekondi.....	334
0.6 Draft Statement.....	335
0.7 National Thanksgiving Service.....	335
0.8 Closing	335
Appendix XVI.....	336
PRESS RELEASE ON THE RECENT RELIGIOUS DISTURBANCES IN CERTAIN PARTS OF THE COUNTRY	336
JOINT STATEMENT BY THE CHRISTIAN COUNCIL OF GHANA AND THE FEDERATION OF MUSLIM COUNCILS, GHANA.....	337
Appendix XVII.....	336
Appendix XVIII	340
Appendix XIX.....	340