

For Zion's Sake

Yehuda Z. Blum

*A Herzl Press Publication
Cornwall Books
New York • London • Toronto*

Contents

Preface	9
1 Israel and the United Nations	15
A The Basic Position	15
B The Double Standard Practiced against Israel at the United Nations	19
C Zionism at the United Nations	23
I. The Aim of the Detractors	23
II. Zionism and "Hegemonism"	25
D Anti-Semitism at the United Nations	28
E The Degeneration of the United Nations	36
F Tendentious Anti-Israel Publications under United Nations Auspices	40
2 The Question of Palestine	44
A History of the Conflict	44
B Is Peace Attainable?	59
C The Two Refugee Problems	67
D The Myth of Moslem Benevolence toward Jews in Arab Lands	70
3 The United Nations Partition Resolution of 29 November 1947	75
4 The Situation in the Middle East	82
5 Jerusalem	97
6 Jewish Settlements in Judea and Samaria	104
A General	104
B Specific Questions	114
7 The Golan Heights	119
8 The War in Lebanon	134
A Background of the Lebanese Tragedy	134
B Operation "Peace for Galilee"	139
C Israel's Assistance to the Rehabilitation of Lebanon	147
D Beirut and Sakiet-Sidi-Youssef	150
E The Arab World's Real Attitude toward the PLO	152
F Sabra and Shatila	157

9	Disarmament Issues	163
	A General	163
	B Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone for the Middle East	171
10	Destruction of the Iraqi Nuclear Reactor	174
11	Mediterranean-Dead Sea Canal	190
12	Universal Declaration of Human Rights—Thirtieth Anniversary	194
13	The Plight of Oppressed Jewish Communities	197
	A Soviet Jewry	197
	B Jews in Moslem Lands	212
14	The Apartheid Policies of South Africa	215
15	On Soviet Hypocrisy	225
	A The Soviet Invasion of Afghanistan	225
	B The Soviet-Nazi Pact of 23 August 1939	227
	C Soviet Concern for Holy Places	230
16	The Holocaust Remembered	232