

South Africa in Southern Africa Domestic Change and International Conflict

edited by
Edmond J. Keller
Louis A. Picard

Lynne Rienner Publishers • Boulder & London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1 South African Patterns of Change and Continuity Louis A. Picard and Edmond J. Keller	1
PART I THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES ON SOCIAL CHANGE IN SOUTH AFRICA
2 The Ethnic Factor and Democratic Constitution-Making in South Africa Arend Lijphart	13
3 From Exhortation to Incentive Strategies: Mediation Efforts in South Africa in the Mid-1980s Donald Rothchild	25
4 Racial Proletarianization and Political Culture in South Africa C. R. D. Hlisi	49
PART II THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF DOMESTIC CHANGE IN SOUTH AFRICA
5 Tsa Batho: Zonal Dynamics of Black Politics in South Africa C. Tsehloane Keto	69
6 The Black Trade Unions and Opposition Politics in South Africa Pearl-Alice Marsh	103
7 The White Mind, Business, and Apartheid Heribert Adam and Kogila Moodley	139

PART III SOUTH AFRICA AND THE
INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ENVIRONMENT

8	SADCC as a Counter-Dependency Strategy: How Much Collective Clout? Richard F. Weisfelder	155
9	The Effects of South Africa on Zambian Politics and Society: Overt and Systematic Destabilization James R. Scarritt	179
10	Southern Africa in Conflict: Problems Enough to Share John Sullivan	201
11	Beyond Constructive Engagement: U.S. Foreign Policy Toward Southern Africa into the 1990s Louis A. Picard and Robert Groelsma	221
	Index	255
	About the Contributors	263