

Neoliberal Frontiers

An Ethnography of Sovereignty in West Africa

BRENDA CHALFIN

The University of Chicago Press Chicago and London

Contents

List of Illustrations ix

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Toward an Anthropology of Neoliberal Sovereignty 1

PART ONE

- 1 Customs as Effective Sovereign: State Logics across Time and Place 21
- 2 Anthropologies of the State: Marrying Ethnography and Political Economy 37

PART TWO

- 3 Histories and Tactics of Territorial Sovereignty: Thinking through the Border 55
- 4 The Sovereignty of Good Governance: Bureaucratic Contests and the Recentering of Power 88
- 5 The Properties of Popular Sovereignty: Customs and Corruption, Cars, and Democratic Discourse 131
- 6 Technologies of Sovereignty: The Politics and Phenomenology of Privatized Rule on the Maritime Frontier 163
- 7 Affective Sovereignty: Airport Anthropology and the Shifting Contours of Citizenship 192

Conclusion: Working the Border: Neoliberal Sovereignty in Comparative Perspective 224

Notes 245

References 261

Index 287