Kingdom on Mount Cameroon

Studies in the History of the Cameroon Coast 1500–1970

Edwin Ardener

Edited and with an Introduction by Shirley Ardener

Berghahn Books
Providence • Oxford
Contents

Editor's Introduction
Shirley Ardener  vii

1. Documentary and Linguistic Evidence for the Rise of the Trading Polities Between Rio del Rey and Cameroon  1

2. Kingdom on Mount Cameroon: The Bakweri and the Europeans  41

3. The Plantations and the People of Victoria Division  151

4. Bakweri Fertility and Marriage  227

5. Witchcraft, Economics and the Continuity of Belief  243

6. The Bakweri Elephant Dance
   Photographs by Moanga Emmanuel Mbwaye  261

7. The Boundaries of Kamerun and Cameroon  267

Bibliography  337

Index
compiled by Ian Fowler  373
Appendices

A. The Wovea Islanders of Ambas Bay 345
   with S. G. Ardener
B. Preliminary Chronological Notes for the Cameroons Coast
   compiled by E. W. and S. G. Ardener 351
C. Bibliography of Edwin Ardener's papers on Africa
   compiled by Malcolm Chapman 365
D. Selected Further Reading 369

Illustrations

1. Joseph Merrick at an Isubu funeral 61
2. The site in Buea where Gravenreuth was killed 83
3. The reburial of Gravenreuth in Douala, 1895
   Drawing of Gravenreuth’s monument 95
4. Von Puttkamer in full dress, 1895 108
5. Von Puttkamer and Dominik on horse by the Bismarck Fountain 109
6. The late Chief Gervasius Endeley, Dr E. M. L. Endeley
   Chief Manga Williams and Edwin Ardener 226
7. The Bakweri elephant dance 262, 264, 265, 266
8. Wovea whale fishermen 344, 347, 349
9. Edwin Ardener 368

Maps

Frontispiece  The Republic of Cameroon
1. The Cameroon Coast in 1600 2
2. Bakweri villages around Buea 44
3. The Plantations and the People of Victoria Division 1897–1899 153
4. The Plantations and the People of Victoria Division 1914 157

Figure

Some interrelated features of the population 219