
" RED GOLD

OF AFRICA Copper in
Precolonial History and Culture

Eugenia W. Herbert

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN PRESS

CONTENTS

ILLUSTRATIONS	x
MAPS, CHARTS, TABLES, AND DIAGRAMS	xv
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xvii
INTRODUCTION	xix

Prologue	The Age of Metals	3
----------	--------------------------	---

Part I: COPPER RESOURCES AND COPPER METALLURGY IN PRECOLONIAL AFRICA

Chapter 1	“Ancient Workings” in sub-Saharan Africa	15
Chapter 2	The Smith as Nganga: Ritual, Social, and Political Aspects of Copperworking	29
Chapter 3	“Mangeurs de Cuivre”: Mining and Smelting	49
Chapter 4	Smithing, Drawing, Casting, and Alloying	76

Part II: THE COPPER TRADE

Chapter 5	Gold for Copper: The Copper Trade before the Period of European Discoveries	103
Chapter 6	Manillas, Neptunes, Rods, and Wire: The Maritime Trade from the Discoveries to c. 1800	123
Chapter 7	The Copper Economy in the Nineteenth Century	154
Coda	Totals: Toward Quantification	179

Part III: COPPER IN TRADITIONAL AFRICAN SOCIETY

Chapter 8	Copper as a Medium of Exchange	185
Chapter 9	Copper as a Medium of Art	208
Chapter 10	Copper as a Medium of Power	240
Chapter 11	Shango and Nommo: Copper and the Language of Materials	277
Conclusion	Red Gold	296
	ABBREVIATIONS	307
	NOTES	309
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	373
	INDEX	393