

The Role of Environmental Impact Assessment in the Decisionmaking Process

Proceedings of an International Workshop held in Heidelberg, Federal Republic of Germany,
August 1987

ERICH SCHMIDT VERLAG

Contents

Introduction (H. Paschen)	11
Part 1
Introductory Lectures
Jürgen Cupai Rationale and Goals of the Workshop	17
Norman Lee Opening Statement (Summary of oral presentation)	23
Norman Lee Environmental Impact Assessment: An Overview of the Current Situation and an Introduction to the Main Themes of the Workshop (Written contribution)	27
Part 2
Summary of the Oral Presentations and Discussions on the Four Themes of the Workshop and Overall Conclusions
Reinhard Coenen, Peter Franz, Juliane Jörissen, Herbert Paschen, Jeffrey Schevitz
Theme I: Incorporation of Environmental Impact Assessment into Existing Legal Systems and Administrative Procedures	41
Theme II: Operationalization and Specification of Environmental Impact Assessment Concepts	61
Theme III: Notification, Consultation, and Participation of Authorities, Interest Groups, and Organizations, as well as the Affected Public	75
Theme IV: Relevance of "Monitoring" for the Role of Environmental Impact Assessment in the Decisionmaking Process; Empirical Findings Concerning the Utilization of EIA Results in Decisionmaking Processes	89
Overall Conclusions	103

Part 3

Written Contributions Submitted by the Participants

3.1. Written Contributions to Theme I

Eckard Reh binder

The Status of Environmental Impact Assessment in the Decisionmaking Process -
Legal Aspects under the Law of the Federal Republic of Germany 113

Marie P. Adam

Environmental Assessment and Review Processes in Canada 119

Henk C. G. M. Brouwer

Incorporation of EIA into Existing Decisionmaking Procedures in the Netherlands131

Dean Hill Rivkin

The Environmental Impact Assessment Process, Administrative Decisionmaking, Citizen Advocacy, and the Courts: An Essay on the Evolution of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 137

Georg Schneider

Aspects of EIA Legislation in Switzerland 147

3.2 Written Contributions to Theme II

Burghard Rauschelbach

Methodological Aspects of Environmental Impact Assessment 155

H. Dominguez Hernández

Environmental Impact Assessment: Concepts, Procedures, Methods 165

Jon O'Riordan

Environmental Assessment: Practice and Experience in British Columbia, Canada 175

Donald B. Hunsaker, Jr.

Environmental Assessments: Uncertainties in Implementation 199

Karen Raymond

Key Issues Relating to the Practical Application of EIA as a Management Tool for Environmental Decision-Making 213

3.3 Written Contributions to Theme III

Eric M. Anderson

Some Salient Features of Notification, Consultation and Participation in Australian EIA Practice 219

Klaus Bosselmann The (Changing) Role of Public Participation in Environmental Impact Assessment: The Reform in New Zealand	231
Gordon S. Davies Environmental Impact Assessment, Public Participation and the Project Cycle	239
Marianne C. de Soet First Experiences with Public Participation in EIA - Illustrated by the Application of EIA on a Large Scale Disposal Site for Harbour-Dredged Material: The Slufter Project	253
Sam Robertson Little I-95 Completion Program: The Practical Benefits of Effective Public Involvement	261
Xaver Monbailliu Environmental Impact Assessment and Public Participation in France	283
 3.4. Written Contributions to Theme IV
J. J. Scholten A Preliminary Review of the Contribution of EIA to the Decisionmaking Processes in the Netherlands	301
William V. Kennedy Environmental Impact Assessment in North America and Western Europe: What has Worked, Where, How and Why?	307
H. Paul Friesema The Unclear Connection between the Scientific Quality of Environmental Impact Statements and Public Policy: Experiences in the U.S.A.	313
Andrzej Jagusiewicz "Cradle to Grave" Monitoring as Integral Part of EIA	323
Thomas P. Gallagher Enforcement Activity as Part of the Environmental Impact Assessment Process and the Relationship to the Hazardous Waste Cleanup Program	327
Annex: List of participants	335