

THE BLUEST HANDS

A SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC HISTORY OF WOMEN DYERS IN
ABEOKUTA (NIGERIA), 1890–1940

Judith A. Byfield

HEINEMANN
Portsmouth, NH

JAMES CURREY
Oxford

DAVID PHILIP
Cape Town

CONTENTS

Illustrations	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Preface	xv
Introduction	xix
1 Dress and Textile Production in Nineteenth-Century Abeokuta	1
2 “The King of England Was Their Wall”: State and Society During the Early Colonial Period	43
3 Artisans and Empire: The Structure and Organization of Adire Production	87
4 Innovation and Conflict in the Adire Industry	126
5 Does Father Know Best? Confronting the Alake	157
6 The Collapse of the Adire Industry, 1937–1939	190
Conclusion	219
Bibliography	231
Index	255