

Beata Ociepka

Poland's New Ways of Public Diplomacy

PETER LANG
EDITION

Contents

List of Abbreviations	9
1. Introduction	13
1.1 Poland as a case for a public diplomacy study.....	15
1.2 Brief history	17
1.3 Domestic politics as a context	20
1.4 Perceptions of Poland abroad.....	23
1.5 Structure of the book.....	24
2. Poland's Re-Entry into the International Community: The Geopolitical Context	31
2.1 Performing its desired geopolitical location	36
2.2 Poland within the EU: The Eastern Partnership and Poland's eastern policy as contexts for the new public diplomacy model.....	38
2.3 How the EU and Russian soft power in Ukraine compete	42
2.4 Poland's minimalism in relations with Russia	46
2.5 The missing global dimension	46
3. Public Diplomacy as a Communication Model	49
3.1 The explanatory power of public diplomacy as a communication model.....	51
3.2 Public diplomacy as transmission.....	52
3.3 Public diplomacy and propaganda as a model of asymmetric communication	54
3.4 From transmission to listening: Public diplomacy as a network	56
3.5 NPD's domestic dimension: The intermestic context of public diplomacy	60

3.6	Public diplomacy cube.....	60
3.7	Mediated public diplomacy.....	61
3.8	Public diplomacy as a structure within the government: The Polish model's constitutive elements	63
4.	Messages and Images: Translating Poland with Key Messages and Logos	67
4.1	Reputation challenges.....	70
4.2	Branding Poland as a normal country that is striving for prestige.....	73
4.3	A Country with many logos: The visual context of country branding	77
4.4	Celebrities and soft power icons.....	79
4.5	“Rules for Communicating the Polska Brand”	80
4.6	First effects	81
5.	Cultural Diplomacy: From Paderewski to “Don’t Panic. We are from Poland”	85
5.1	Main actors and strategies: Poland’s cultural establishments abroad.....	86
5.2	Years and seasons of culture	91
5.4	“I, Culture”	96
5.5	Student exchanges, science diplomacy and teaching Polish abroad	98
5.6	Poland’s cultural diplomacy in Ukraine	101
5.7	The Russian context	103
6.	Politics of Memory as a Core Element of Poland’s (New) Public Diplomacy	107
6.1	The geopolitical context.....	108
6.2	Milestones	114

6.3	“Against Polish Camps”.....	116
6.4	The multilateral dimension of Poland’s politics of memory: the European Network Remembrance and Solidarity.....	121
6.5	Film as a tool of politics of memory.....	122
6.6	Poland’s politics of memory toward Ukraine: The Russian context	123
7.	Mediated Public Diplomacy	129
7.1	Poland’s rationale for involvement in international broadcasting.....	132
7.2	The role of public service broadcasters: TVP and Polish Radio.....	134
7.3	Broadcasting to the East: Belarus and Ukraine.....	135
7.4	Staged media events.....	142
7.5	Advertising.....	144
7.6	Public diplomacy 2.0: Twiplomacy	146
8.	Development Cooperation and the Promotion of Democracy	151
8.1	GONGOs and NGOs as hubs.....	156
8.2	Public diplomacy in conflict situations	162
8.3	Democracy promotion: Ukraine as a target country.....	163
9.	Soft Line of Economic Power: The Economy as a Brand	169
9.1	Main actors of Poland’s economic diplomacy	173
9.2	#eatapples: Agriculture, gastrodiploamacy, and foreign politics.....	177
9.3	Tourism: The Polish Tourist Organization.....	181
9.4	The Polish workforce abroad	184

10. Bottom-Up: The Self-Government Dimension and Citizen Public Diplomacy	187
10.1 The RODM network	192
10.2 Self-government reform as Poland's success story.....	195
10.3 Regional and city diplomacy: Lower Silesia, Wrocław, and the Meeting Place	196
10.4 Citizen diplomacy: Civil and uncivil society	202
11. Conclusion	205
11.1 Values	207
11.2 Orientation on the past	208
11.3 Niches	208
11.4 The netmission model in relation to mediated public diplomacy.....	209
11.5 Ukraine as a verifier	210
11.6 Problems that lie ahead	211
List of Tables	213
Index	215
Interviewees	219
References	221
Documents	221
Literature.....	226