

Organized Interests and the European Community

edited by

Justin Greenwood, Jürgen R. Grote
and Karsten Ronit

SAGE Publications
London • Newbury Park • New Delhi

Contents

Contributors	iv
Preface	vi
1 Introduction: Organized Interests and the Transnational Dimension Justin Greenwood, Jürgen R. Grote and Karsten Ronit	1
2 Organized Interests in the European Telecommunications Sector Volker Schneider	42
3 Established and Emergent Sectors: Organized Interests at the European Level in the Pharmaceutical Industry and the New Biotechnologies Justin Greenwood and Karsten Ronit	69
4 Interests, Groups and Public Policy-Making: the Case of the European Consumer Electronics Industry Alan Cawson	99
5 Small Firms in the European Community: Modes of Production, Governance and Territorial Interest Representation in Italy and Germany Jürgen R. Grote	119
6 Coping with Heterogeneity: Peak Associations of Business within and across Western European Nations Luca Lanzalaco	173
7 Making the Most of Diversity? European Integration and Transnational Organization of Labour Jelle Visser and Bernhard Ebbinghaus	206
8 Conclusions: Evolving Patterns of Organizing Interests in the European Community Justin Greenwood, Jürgen R. Grote and Karsten Ronit	238
Bibliography	253
Index	277