

M. AVI-YONAH

The Jews under Roman and Byzantine Rule

A Political History of Palestine
from the Bar Kokhba War to the Arab Conquest

SCHOCKEN BOOKS INC., NEW YORK
THE MAGNES PRESS, THE HEBREW UNIVERSITY, JERUSALEM

Contents

Illustrations	ix
Abbreviations	x
Preface to the English Edition	xii
Publisher's Note	xvi
Note on the Second English Edition	xvi
From the Preface to the Hebrew Edition	xvii
Introduction	i
I The Era of Reconstruction	15
1. The Demographic and Economic Situation	15
2. Repairing the Damage of a Lost War	25
II A Political Compromise:
The Jewish Problem from the Roman Point of View	35
1. The Background	35
2. The Emperors and Judaism; 'Antoninus' the Friend of the Patriarch Judah I	39
3. The Roman Governors and the Jews	42
4. The Roman Policy of Appeasement	44
III The Compromise between the Jews and Rome from the Jewish Point of View	54
1. The Renewal of the National Establishment. The Patriarchate	54
2. Roman Rule in Jewish Eyes	64
3. The Jews and Greek Culture	71
4. The Age of Revolts Comes to an End	76

5. The Limits of the Compromise : Jerusalem and the Proselytes	79
6. Conclusion	83
IV Palestine Jewry and the Crisis of the Empire in the Third Century	89
1. The Crisis and its Causes	89
2. Aspects of the Political Crisis in Palestine	91
3. The Economic Results of the Political Crisis : Conscription, Forced Labour, New Taxes	93
4. The Collection of the New Taxes and its Abuses	98
5. The Inflation	102
6. The Social Results of the Economic Crisis	104
7. The Counteraction of the Patriarchate	108
V The Political Results of the Crisis	115
1. Introduction	115
2. The Dissension between the Patriarch and the Scholars	116
3. The Functions of the Patriarchate Limited de facto and de jure	121
4. The Decline in the Status of Palestinian Jewry	123
5. The Relations with the Roman Government in the Times of Crisis. Palmyrene Domination	125
6. The People Changes its Attitude to Roman Rule. The Revival of the Messianic Hopes	127
7. Summary of the Effects of the Crisis	132
VI Judaism and Christianity to the Accession of the Emperor Constantine	137
1. Introduction	137
2. Palestine Jewry and the Judaeo-Christians. The 'Minim'	138
3. Christianity and its Relation to Judaism till the End of the Second Century	145
4. The Relaxation of Tension and Cessation of Disputes in the Third Century	149
5. Origen and Eusebius on Judaism and the Jews	150
6. Christian-Jewish Relations on the Eve of the Christian Empire	152
7. Summary	154
VII The Beginnings of Christian Rule in Palestine	158
PART I: THE REIGN OF CONSTANTINE I (324-337)	158
1. Christian Rule and its Immediate Consequences	158
2. The Character and Policy of Constantine ; his Laws concerning the Jews	161
3. The Jewish Reaction to Constantine's Policy	166

PART II: THE REIGN OF CONSTANTIUS II (337-361)	174
4. New Anti-Jewish Legislation	174
5. The Revolt against Gallus Caesar	176
VIII The Emperor Julian and the Jews	185
1. The Rise of Julian and his Political Principles	185
2. Julian's Relation to Judaism in Theory and Practice	187
3. Julian's Meeting with a Jewish Deputation at Antioch. His Decision to Return Jerusalem to the Jews	191
4. Jewish Reactions to Julian's Proclamation	193
5. The Beginnings of the Restoration of the Temple. The Work Interrupted. Julian's End	198
IX The Great Assault on the Jews and Judaism, 363-439	208
1. The Division of the Period	208
2. The Period of Transition	209
3. The Rise of Theodosius I, the Orthodox Emperor	210
4. The New Legislation concerning the Jews	213
5. The Christians Become the Majority in Palestine	220
6. The Jewish Share in the Material Prosperity of the Byzantine Period	221
7. The Spiritual Situation of Palestine Jewry. The Messianic Hopes	223
8. The End of the Patriarchate	225
X Division in the Christian Camp: Two Generations of Peace and Strengthening for the Jews	232
1. The Division in the Christian Camp	232
2. The Influence of the Ecclesiastical Divisions on Byzantine Policy	234
3. The Influence of the Byzantine Divisions on Palestine Jewry	236
4. The Situation of the Jews in Palestine towards the End of Byzantine Rule	237
5. The Jews and the Samaritan Revolts	241
XI The Emperor Justinian and the Jews	246
1. Renewal of the Anti-Jewish Legislation	246
2. The Conflict between Byzantines and Jews in the Red Sea	251
3. The Successors of Justinian	253
XII The Persian Invasion and the End of Byzantine Rule	257
1. The Last War between Persia and Rome	257
2. The Persian Invasion and the Jews	259

3. The Persians Conquer Palestine with Jewish Aid	261
4. Jewish Rule in Jerusalem	265
5. The Change of Persian Policy. Expulsion of the Jews from Jerusalem	268
6. The Restoration of Byzantine Rule in Palestine. The Revenge of Heraclius	270
7. The Arab Conquest	272
8. Conclusion	275
Index	279