

THE PACIFIC ECONOMY

Growth and External Stability

Edited by

Mohamed Ariff

ALLEN & UNWIN

In association with

The Pacific Trade and Development Conference Secretariat

The Australian National University and The Institute of Strategic and International Studies (ISIS)

Malaysia

Contents

Tables	vii
Figures	ix
Contributors	xi
Foreword	xiii
Noordin Sopiee
Preface	xv
Mohamed Ariff
1 Introduction	1
Mohamed Ariff
2 Economic stability and growth in the Pacific: an overview	11
Ross Garnaut
3 Pacific growth and macroeconomic performance: models and issues	27
Anne O. Krueger
4 The United States in the world economy	44
Barry P. Bosworth
5 The Japanese economy and Pacific development	60
Heizo Takenaka
6 The current account and economic policy: the Australian experience in the 1980s	71
R. G. Gregory
7 Macroeconomic development and prospects in East Asia	93
Yung Chul Park
8 Macroeconomic management in the ASEAN countries	121
Mari Pangestu
9 Exchange rate regimes and practices: Malaysian perspectives	155
Lin See Yan
10 Resource gaps and external financing in the Asia-Pacific countries	176
Manuel F. Montes

11	Commodity trends and policy responses with reference to the Pacific Ronald C. Duncan	192
12	Evolving patterns of comparative advantage in the Pacific economies Ipppei Yamazawa, Akira Hirata and Kazuhiko Yokota	213
13	The Pacific and the world economy: inter-relations Lawrence B. Krause and Mark Sundberg	233
14	The role of multilateralism and regionalism: a Pacific perspective H. Edward English and Murray G. Smith	253

APPENDIXES

5A	A long-term economic forecast for the Asia-Pacific region	276
9A	Supplementary data	277
12A.1	Index of trade intensity	288
12A.2	Index of revealed comparative advantage	288
12A.3	Index of trade complementarity	288
12A.4	Regression analysis of trade flows	289
12A.5	Trade statistics	290
13A	Outline of the Asia-Pacific MSG model	290
14A.1	Statement on trade policy by PECC Standing Committee	295
14A.2	Joint statement ministerial-level meeting, 5-7 November 1989, Canberra	297
	Notes	299
	Bibliography	304
	Index	313