

György Éger,
Josef Langer (eds.):

Border, Region and Ethnicity in Central Europe

Results of an International
Comparative Research

Contents

Preface	5
CSABA G. KISS Borders and nations in Central Europe	7
I Theoretical approaches
GYÖRGY ÉGER Region, border, periphery	15
MARTIN PETERSON Force of dynamism or regression? The new regionalism in Europe	31
JOSEF LANGER New meanings of the border in Central Europe	49
YRJÖ-PAAVO HÄYRYNEN Borders as psychological factors in Europe. Barriers, zones and corridors of symbolic interaction	69
II The border in every day life
ALBERTO GASPARINI Border towns in Europe and the role of minorities	93
GYÖRGY ÉGER The border that divides and connects. Life-style, living conditions, ethnic preferences of the Hungarian population living in the border regions	99
JOSEF LANGER On the western side of the former Iron Curtain – the Austrian border region	121

MIKLÓS HADAS
Modernisation and life-style strategies in the Hungarian-Slovakian-Ukrainian triple-border region	145
ANTAL BÓHM
Local governments near the border. Local government, local society, political participation in some Central European countries	161
PIRKKOLIISA AHPONEN
The case of Karelia – a remote example of border-crossings	183
Notes on contributors	203