

PROUDLY WE CAN BE AFRICANS

BLACK AMERICANS AND AFRICA,
1935-1961

James H. Meriwether

The University of North Carolina Press
Chapel Hill and London

CONTENTS

Introduction 1

Prologue 11

ONE: ETHIOPIA

The Italo-Ethiopian War and Reconceptualizing
Contemporary Africa, 1935-1936 27

TWO: IN WORLD WAR AND COLD WAR

Configuring Anticolonialism and Internationalism,
1941-1950 57

THREE: SOUTH AFRICA

Apartheid and Nonviolent Resistance, 1948-1953 90

FOUR: KENYA

The Mau Mau and Revolutionary Violence, 1952-1956 124

FIVE: GHANA

African Independence, 1957-1958 150

SIX: THE YEAR OF AFRICA

Lows, Highs, and Corners, 1960 181

SEVEN: CONGO

Independence, Black Nationalism, Leftism, and Splintering,
1960-1961 208

Epilogue 241

Notes 247

Selected Bibliography 307

Index 325