

JONATHAN E. HELMREICH

Gathering Rare Ores

The Diplomacy of Uranium Acquisition, 1943-1954

Princeton University Press

CONTENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	ix
PREFACE	xi
1. Discovering the Need	3
The Early Search: Leslie Groves and Edgar Sengier	4
A Joint Anglo-American Effort	9
2. The Cornerstone: Agreement with Belgium	15
Initial Contacts	15
Belgian Counterproposals	21
Compromise: Article 9	29
The African Metals Corporation Contract	33
Conclusion	36
3. Efforts at Preemption: Brazil, The Netherlands, and Sweden	42
The Survey of Uranium and Thorium Resources	42
Negotiations with Brazil	49
Negotiations with The Netherlands	57
Negotiations with Sweden	60
Success of the Preemption Efforts	68
4. Price, Politics, and Pride: Further Negotiations with Belgium	72
Monetary Profits and a New Tax	73
Maintaining Secrecy of the Terms of Agreement	77
Concessions Grow Necessary	82
Invitation of Belgian Scientists to the United States	90
5. Reluctant Anglo-American Collaboration	97
Early Contacts and the Quebec Accord of 1943	97
Growing Differences	101
The November 1945 Agreements	105

Contents

Compromise on Allocation of Materials	112
The McMahon Bill and the Resignation of Groves	118
The Modus Vivendi of January 1948	123
Conclusion	128
6. The Difficulties of Sharing	134
Interchange in Trouble	134
A New Proposal	137
Amendment of the Atomic Energy Act	145
Faltering Communication	152
7. Much Effort, Limited Gain: Continuing Global Negotiations	158
Reworking the Brazilian Accord	159
Negotiations with India	166
Indonesia, Sweden, and Norway	172
Improving Relations with France	177
The Iberian Peninsula	183
Negotiations with South Africa	185
8. Raising the Rate of Compensation: The Belgian Export Tax	191
Belgian Pressure for Information	192
Failure of the Winter 1950 Discussions	197
New Efforts Toward Publication	201
The Export Tax	206
Defense of the Congo	217
9. Atoms for Peace, Atoms for War	225
Revision of the Atomic Energy Act	226
India and Brazil: Foreign Aid and the Purchase of Unwanted Materials	231
Efforts for Additional Agreements	239
The Linkage of Preemption and Proliferation	245
10. Preemption and Monopoly in Retrospect	247
NOTES	263
BIBLIOGRAPHY	287
Primary Sources	287
Secondary Sources	289
Index	293