

Beyond Bretton Woods

Alternatives to the Global Economic Order

Edited by

John Cavanagh, Daphne Wysham and Marcos Arruda

Pluto Press

LONDON • BOULDER, COLORADO

with

Institute for Policy Studies

and

Transnational Institute (TNI)

Contents

Foreword Susan George	vii
Notes on Contributors	x
Introduction: From Bretton Woods to Chiapas John Cavanagh, Daphne Wysham and Marcos Arruda	xii
I What Kind of Development Should New Global Institutions Serve?
1 Development: The Market is not Enough Robin Broad, John Cavanagh and Walden Bello	3
2 Equitable and Sustainable Growth in the Philippines in the 1990s Walden Bello	16
3 Human Rights of the Underclass Peter Weiss	29
4 Global Economic Institutions and Democracy: A View from India Smitu Kothari	39
II Alternatives to the International Monetary Fund
5 Alternatives to the International Monetary Fund Robert S. Browne	57
6 Taming Global Money Howard M. Wachtel	74
7 Creative Debt Relief: The Swiss Debt Reduction Facility Alfred Gugler	82
8 A New Framework of Accountability for the IMF Richard Gerster	94

III Alternatives to the World Bank

- 9 Farewell Lecture to the World Bank 109
Herman E. Daly
- 10 Transforming Aid Through Democratic Participation 118
Douglas Hellinger and Stephen Hellinger
- 11 A Creative Approach to Structural Adjustment: Towards a
People-centred Development 132
Marcos Arruda
- 12 The World Bank's Revised Information Policy and New Inspection Panel: Public Accountability or Public Relations? 145
Lori Udall
- 13 Grounds for Divorce: Why IDA Should Delink from the World Bank 155
Lori Udall
- 14 Human Capital: The World Bank's Approach to Education in Latin America 166
José Luis Coraggio

IV Promoting Economic Justice: Other Institutional Changes

- 15 A Global New Deal 175
Richard J. Barnett and John Cavanagh
- 16 Lilliputian Power: A World Economy As If Communities
Mattered 188
Michael Shuman
- 17 A Just and Sustainable Trade and Development Initiative
for North America 202
Citizens' Alliances
- 18 Alternatives to the World Trading System 212
Reinaldo Goncalves and Luis Carlos Delorme Prado Goncalves
- 19 Accountability and the World Trade Organization 221
Myriam Vander Stichele