

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES AND THE DEMOCRATISATION OF AFRICA

EDITED BY

PAUL GIFFORD

E.J. BRILL
LEIDEN · NEW YORK · KÖLN
1995

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Introduction: Democratisation and the Churches Paul Gifford	1
I. Conference Summary and Conclusion Terence Ranger	14
II. The Churches and Democracy: Reviewing a Relationship Adrian Hastings	36
III. Theological Reflections on the Task of the Church in the Democratisation of Africa John W. de Gruchy	47
IV. Problems of Democratic Consolidation David Beetham	61
V. Christianity and Democratisation in South Africa: the Prophetic Voice within Phlegmatic Churches Peter Walshe	74
VI. Identity Crisis Desmond Tutu	95
VII. Not Catalyst but Ferment: the Distinctive Contribution of the Churches to Political Reform in Malawi 1992-93 Kenneth R. Ross	98
VIII. The Church and Democratisation in Africa: the Case of Zimbabwe David J. Maxwell	108
IX. Churches and the Peace Process in Mozambique Alex Vines and Ken Wilson	130

X.	The Christian Churches and Democratisation in the Congo Abraham Okoko-Esseau	148
XI.	The Churches and the Democratic Upheaval in Cameroon 1982-1993 Pierre Titi Nwel	168
XII.	Christianity and Democratisation in Rwanda: Assessing Church Responses to Political Crisis in the 1990s Timothy Paul Longman	188
XIII.	The Role of Christian Churches in the Democratisation Process in Uganda 1980-1993 John Mary Waliggo	205
XIV.	Christians and Nigeria's Aborted Transition Matthew Hassan Kukah	225
XV.	'God is Not a Democrat': Pentecostalism and Democratisation in Nigeria Ruth Marshall	239
XVI.	The Church and the Quest for Democracy in Ghana Kwesi A. Dickson	261
XVII.	'Directed by the Hand of God': the Role of Liberian Christianity during the Civil War Paul Gifford	276
XVIII.	The Madagascan Churches in the Political Arena and their Contribution to the Change of Regime 1990-1993 Françoise Raison-Jourde	292